Activities are in full swing by November.

Music and decor reveal the warmth of Christmas.

The spirit of sharing abides in December during Christmas festivities.

Not even heavy January

snows stop winter sports.

February . . . Activities move indoors as wintery weather persists.

The knowledge we gain and share in high school determines our futures. We are provided with various courses to advance our knowledge in many areas. Together, we spend much time in school getting an education. We share classes, ideas, teachers, and interests. The academic courses, and the teachers who teach them, inspire growth and understanding in our lives. As the years pass, it is up to us as individuals to put the acquired knowledge to use.

Opportunities are available in many areas.

Cafeteria and Maintenance Workers strive to maintain service throughout the school.

The Maintenance Workers are (below): Back Row: Mr. Weber, Mr. Gould, engineer; Mr. Ealy. Front Row: Mr. Morgan, Supervisor; Mr. Flannigan, and Mr. Jones.

Although they remain in the background throughout the school day, the cafeteria and maintenance workers provide hot lunches and other services during the day. Our maintenance staff maintains the school and is responsible for the condition of the building. Usually passed over when credit is handed out, they are one of the driving forces in the running of the school for without them, there would be no hot lunches, heat, light or anyone to fix necessary repairs. As days progress, we become accustomed to them as individuals and they often become our personal friends.

Student Workers come in handy in the course of a busy day.

Bonita Hoskins (below) helps the librarians by checking out books and watching the desk.

Yvonne Casada and Lesa Helton (above) perform their morning and afternoon jobs in the office.

Who are the girls working in the specific offices around school? Some are paid to help in the library and the office, while others volunteer their free bells to help out. These girls are student workers, most of whom are irreplaceable. They make it easier on Mrs. Kingery, Mrs. Gould, and Mrs. Warfield by allowing them to devote their time to important duties that need priority.

A student's trip to South America provides many exciting adventures shared among Spanish students.

This year's Spanish Club members are (below): Back Row: Tom Romanello, Joe Wellman, Eric Kelly, Don Diebold, and Bill Brisbin. Fifth Row: Pat O'Connor, Nancy Carr, George Schneider, Vicki Combs, Lynn Hill. Fourth Row: Mike McCaffrey, Teresa Spurlock, Debbie Popplewell, Eve Gabbard. Third Row: Phyllis Tucker, Lisa White, Carri Huffaker, Carolyn Woods, Edward Lauer. Second Row: Linda Uchtman, Melanie Conner, Carolyn Kelly, Tony Romanello. Front Row: Pam Fulmer, Margret Krebs, Mary Jo Meinking, Linda Hermeling, Darryl Roberts.

This year Spanish Club officers are as follows: President Phyllis Tucker, Vice President Vicki Combs, Secretary Debbie Popplewell, and Treasurer Melanie Conner.

All Spanish Club members work hard on sponsored activities during the year. The float which they constructed for this year's Homecoming Parade was a success.

Mr. Wynn's classes participate in the making of Pinatas celebrating the coming of the Christmas holidays.

The members of Spanish Club plan bake sales and a spring car wash to raise money to see a Stingers game and to view some Spanish productions. Other activities include a trip to watch the Reds play.

A member of Spanish Club, Kari Junker, visited South America and upon returning, shared all her exciting adventures with Norwood High School students.

Members of Spanish National Honor Society excel in their Spanish ability.

Spanish National Honor Society functions primarily as an honorary society rather than a club. To be inducted into this nationwide organization, students must maintain a 3.0 average for three consecutive semesters. During a small annual ceremony, usually held in March, students receive certificates stating that they are members of the national organization. This year, seven students are being initiated.

Jerry Boeckmann gives French Club a new outlook on France by explaining his recent trip there with Youth For Understanding.

President Jerry Boeckmann traveled to France during the summer and returned with new ideas and enthusiasm for French Club.

The students plan to take a trip to Quebec over spring vacation. Money-raising projects for the trip include bake sales after school. They plan to have a Christmas party with a gift exchange, games, and much food — French maybe? Students are also excited about visiting the "cuisine de France."

Under the advisement of Mrs. Rider, French Club brings a flavor of Paris to Norwood High School.

French Club listens (below) to Jerry Boeckmann explain his summer visit to France.

Members of Latin Club are (below): Back Row: Patti Ryan, Kari Junker, Ken Bowman, Joe Nabor, John Nabor. Fourth Row: Steve Marshall, Connie Edwards, Faith Stockton, Patty Schroeder, Troy Pierce. Third Row: Teresa Brock, Denise Clark, Cheryl Genton, Mike Davis, Tracey Davis, Annette Hayes. Second Row: Linda Ernsperger, Valerie Roddy, Marian Curtis, Keith Popplewell. Front Row: Wayne Johnson, Becky Ellis, Connie Cancaro, Bonita Hoskins.

The officers, under Miss Parris, lead Latin Club's many activities this year. Among these activities are the Latin Olympics, in which Norwood placed first out of five. Area Roman Banquets are held along with a banquet for N.H.S. Latin Club members. T-shirts are sold to raise money for outside activities such as dining in downtown restaurants and Reds' games. All agree that this year's Latin Club is active and everyone has a good time.

Math Club prepares students interested in a mathematical field.

Math Club members are (above): Back Row: Tim French, Joe Wellman, Don Diebold, Don Jones, Vicki Hill, Mrs. Hester, Ed Mueller, Steve Robbins, Brigitte Wright, Joe Trauth, Joe Nabor, Eric Kelly, Ken Bowman, John Nabor, Jim Gillespie. Front Row: Liz Saylor, Mike Davis, Nhan Ho, Sandy Boggs, Cheryl Genton, Mike McCaffrey, Faith Stockton, George Schnieder, Patty Mahne, and Kari Junker.

Students who show a particular interest in the class of mathematics, join the Math Club to further explore the subject. During the year, the students take field trips to IBM, IRS, and to local colleges.

As do other organizations, the Math

Club sponsors a Homecoming queen candidate and participates in the parade. Parties, dinners, and other activities are enjoyed by the Math Club members during the year. Math contests are held for fun as well as for learning.

O.W.E. takes Norwood students out of school and puts them to work in the community.

The Occupational Work Experience class teaches students how to hold a job while completing N.H.S. requirements for graduation. Students prepare for work life after graduation by co-oping half-a-day in various businesses in and around Norwood.

Led by President Sheila Swigart, the group keeps itself busy and involved in school functions. Projects during the '77-'78 year include collecting a Thanksgiving basket, a spring banquet, a picnic, and participating in the volleyball sports tournament.

Distributive Education students study the art of sales then close the year with a successful Employer Appreciation dinner.

Distributive Education is a program of instruction in which students are trained for careers in retailing, wholesaling, and service establishments. The success of the program is the result of cooperative participation by the school, employers, business supervisors, parents, and students — coordinated and supervised by Mr. Athy. Members of the Club participate in competitive events on the local, regional, and state levels. During the year the Club has several money-making projects to sponsor the Employer Appreciation Banquet.

The Club's leaders this year are Rick Turner, president; Pam Paul, vice-president; Pam Barnett, secretary, and Marianne Kroell, treasurer.

Cooperative Office Education enables students to learn and earn.

Casada, Mary Murphy, Jimmy Davis, Jim Godsey. Front Row: Irma Richardson, Lorene Walker, Terri Mueller, Michelle Frazier, Dennis Smith, Valerie

Taylor, Mary Krieger, Debbie Burton, Lesa Helton, Rita Bradford, Mr. Dietz.

Irma Richardson (left) checks the xeroxed copy as it comes out of the machine.

C.O.E. student Yvonne Casada (below) spends her mornings in the office calling absent students and delivering absence lists.

Cooperative Office Education better known as C.O.E. Club is led by President Michelle Frazier, Vice-President Jim Davis, Secretary Jenny Schardt, and Treasurer Kim Stanton.

Experience in office procedures and a chance to earn extra money are among the benefits Norwood High School's part-time students are afforded during their senior year as office co-ops. This year the co-ops will participate in the regional and state office skills contests. The annual Employer Appreciation Banquet is the highlight of the year. At this Banquet, the co-ops express appreciation to their employers and to their advisor, Mr. Jacque Dietz.

Annually the Esprit mirrors the thoughts and feelings of N.H.S. students.

Mary Robertson, Vicky Combs, and Kari Junker (left) make posters advertising the Esprit.

Principles of publishing magazines are noted by Esprit members (bottom) Kathy Schroeder, Bona Miller, and Mike Davis.

Started in 1973, the Esprit continues to promote "spirit" in the form of student writings. All students are invited to express their creative talents in essays, poems, or stories submitted to the magazine. The staff, headed by Editor Kathy Schroeder, works hard throughout the year to maintain the traditionally high quality of Norwood's literary magazine.

Mirror Staff keeps Norwood High School students informed.

The purpose of the Mirror Staff is to help the students realize the problems and present current, relative news to the students. Monthly, they publish their award-winning newsmagazine, "The Mirror." Through news articles, features, and the popular Grapevine ads, the student-body is kept well-informed and entertained.

Simultaneous to the publishing of "The Mirror," the staff works in co-operation with the television center to produce the "Norwood Newsreel." Choreographed, directed and broadcasted by the students, this bi-weekly newscast is the only such student production in the area.

The staff is also involved in outside activities. It sponsors the half-time entertainment at the WSAI-Faculty basketball game. The staff also participates in fund-raising projects planned to aid in financing "The Mirror."

Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service are required qualities of a National Honor Society member.

Primarily, the Norwood chapter of the National Honor Society, honors students for outstanding achievements in academics, extracurricular activities, service and leadership. Once inducted as a member of the society, a student is in good standing when applying to colleges and for jobs.

To qualify as a member, students must retain at least a 3.0 grade average, to participate in at least two extracurricular activities, and be judged on citizenship and leadership by each of his teachers.

Following induction, which is held annually in May, National Honor Society members hold picnics, progressive dinners and card parties among other social activities. At the end of each term, they award scholarship banners to the sophomore, junior, and senior homerooms who have the highest scholastic average for the term. Keeping pace with other clubs, National Honor Society also sponsored Kim Schmidt as Homecoming Candidate for the 1977 Homecoming festivities.

New members of N.H.S. are (above) Back Row: John Nabor, Katie O'Connor, Deborah Pittman, Patricia Ryan, Elizabeth Saylor, Kimberly Schmidt, Sheila Stears, Kimberly Stanton, William Whitaker. The SILHOUETTE Staff, in untiring efforts to promote an outstanding year-book, transform work into pleasure. The seemingly endless efforts to meet deadlines become worthwhile when the annual brings satisfaction to the students of N.H.S.

In SILHOUETTE, the likeness, as well as the name of every student in Norwood High School, may be found. It is the goal of this year's staff to meet the expectations of Norwood students, so that they may have a fond remembrance of their high school years.

Silhouette Representatives deliver the yearbooks to the students in early May.

Responsible for selling this year's book are (below): Back Row: John Vincent, Margret Mastin, Lisa Douglas, Patty Perry, Lisa Shouse, and Rita Ray. Second Row: Diane Henderson, Tony Romanello, Brenda Stringer, Linda Farmer, Fay Farmer, Tammy Mounce, Charles Fisher, Julie Hess, Kelly Hensley. Front Row: Val Henderson, Ginny Krebs, Vicki Touris, Connie Edwards, Melanie Davidson, Kim Owens.

Collecting money, keeping records, and making sure the students get their yearbooks are the duties of the representatives. Under the supervision of Miss Ware, the students are elected through their homerooms to serve them. The students attend meetings and keep their homerooms informed on delivery time in the spring.

The students of N.H.S. anxiously await the arrival of the yearbook and depend on their reps to get theirs to them.

FRIENDSHIP

Friendship shows its face in many forms. Students appreciate guidance from teachers and counselors and in return they share friendship. Among students, the word friend may cover classmates or a special date for the Prom, Homecoming, or Friday nights sport events. Friends share smiles, tears and fears concerning classes, dates, teamwork or graduation. Whether friends are new or old, they share the joys and tribulations of growing up, becoming men and women and planning their lives together or in separate states. Although the time often arrives for friends to part, strong friendship remains. Memories survive to retain the warmth and glow of our friends we make during time spent at Norwood High School. Visions of laughter ringing in the hallway will always remind us of moments' shared.

P.A.L.S. promotes unity among the girls of our school.

In keeping with the Christmas spirit (far bottom) Miss Guenert, Marty Snapp, Denise Clark, Yvonne Casada, and Terri Osborn take over and decorate the Christmas tree.

The 1977-1978 P.A.L.S. members (below).

P.A.L.S. is the organization for girls at N.H.S. who wish to become united in friendship, and serve the community. Besides sponsoring the annual Thanksgiving baskets. P.A.L.S. presents the Christmas dance.

The 1977-1978 P.A.L.S. officers are President, Teri Osborn, Vice-President

Marty Snapp, Secretary Denise Clark, and Treasurer Yvonne Casada.

At the beginning of the year, the girls exchange names for secret pals. Each member has a secret pal who does nice things for her throughout the year. Secret pals are revealed at the end of the year at a special banquet for the club.

The performance of Fiddler on the Roof brought the audience to a standing ovation.

Motel (top) sings about his love for Tzeitel.

Tevye asks Golde, (middle) "Do you love me?"

Grandma Tzeitel (bottom) reappears in Tevye's dream advising him to match Tzeitel and Motel.

Men gather (below) together, celebrating the deal made between Lazar Wolfe and Tevye.

A search light, people formally dressed, doormen, TV interviews, and ushers — for what? OPENING NIGHT!!!

The curtain rose to a packed house for the production of "Fiddler on the Roof" on April 29th and 30th after a long delay due to bad weather and split sessions.

An outstanding feature was a specially built two-story house on the stage which could not be moved for scene changes. This meant making changes in scenes and dialogue. The art department also built extensions onto the stage and a cage which held a live chicken to add authenticity to the setting.

The cast, crews, and directors worked hard, but the ovation from an appreciative audience made it all worthwhile.

Fyedka (left) lends a book to Chava that turns into a bond between them.

Lazar Wolfe and Tevye (middle) make a deal for Tzeitel's hand in marriage.

After the marriage of Tzeitel and Motel, the town (below) joyfully celebrates the occasion.

The Mamas (above) sing about their roles in tradition.

Word quickly gets around (middle) about the wedding of Tzeitel and Motel.

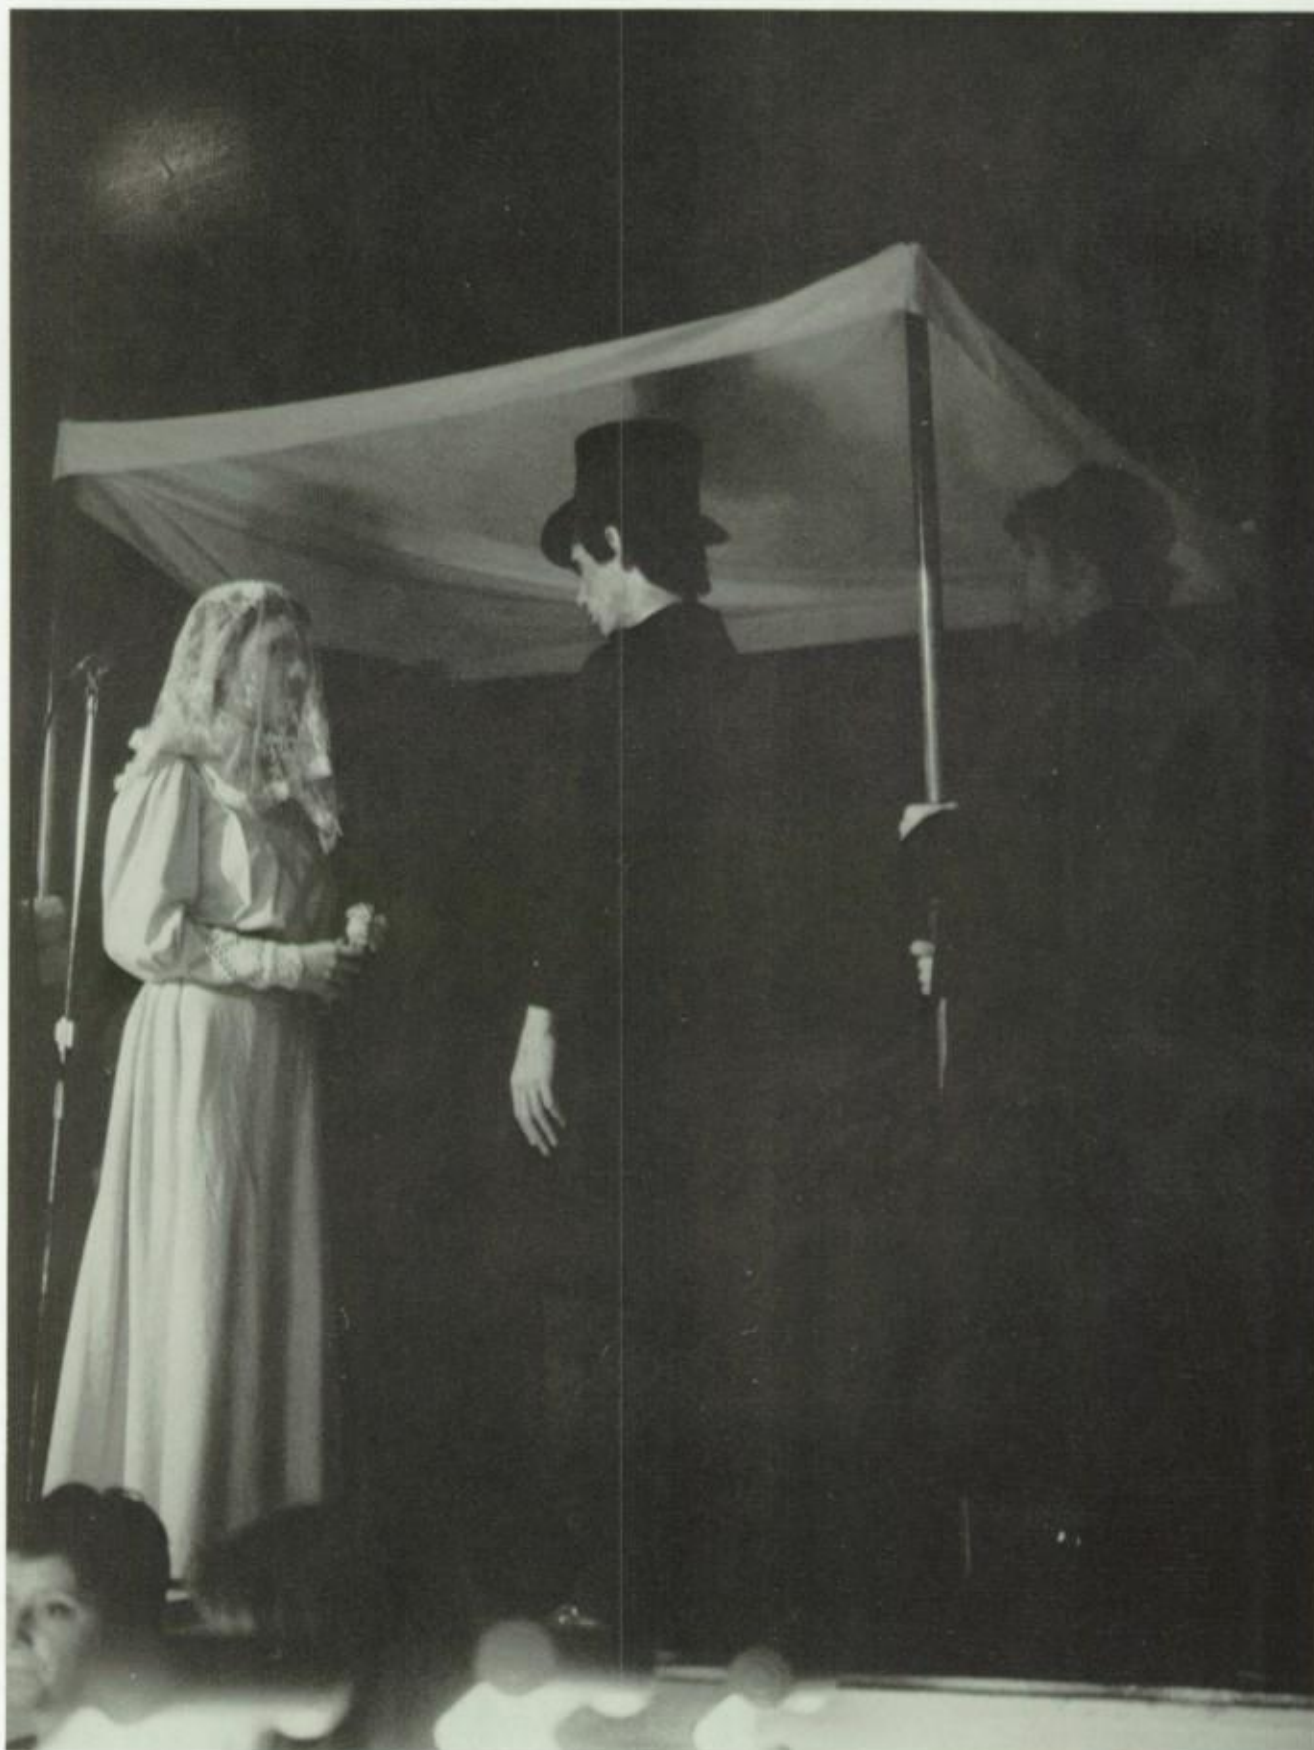

The three sisters (top right) sing of their happiness.

Tzeitel and Motel (right) are wed under the traditional canopy.

HOMECOMING . . .

two nights of wonderful memories to share.

The Indians (left) observe from the sideline as the Chargers tackle one of their teammates.

Queen candidates and crowd alike anxiously await (bottom) the results of the game.

Homecoming activities begin on October 6th with a pep rally honoring all fall sports. On Friday, October 7th, before the Homecoming game against the Forest Park Chargers, a Homecoming Parade travels down Montgomery Road to the stadium.

The stands are filling with parents, students, and graduates of Norwood High School, all hoping to cheer the Indians to victory.

At half-time the Band, Flag Corps, and Indianettes perform prior to the introduction of the Homecoming Queen candidates and their escorts.

Between third and fourth quarters, the Band float is declared the winner. At this time the Indians control the Chargers, but unfortunately not for long. However, everyone is looking forward to the Homecoming Dance on Saturday, October 8th.

The Band puts on a show in addition to playing for dancing. Shortly before the dance ends, Rodney Love introduces the Queen candidates and their escorts. The winners — Marty Snapp, Cheerleaders' candidate, is second runner-up; Denise Clark, G.I.A.'s candidate, is first runner-up; and now the moment everyone's waiting for — Lisa Whalen, Pep Club's candidate, is the 1977 Homecoming Queen. As the evening comes to a close, Queen Lisa and Andy Stankovics dance to the theme song THIS ONE'S FOR YOU.

There's enjoyment to be found (middle) whether you're dancing or just talking to friends.

Queen Lisa Whalen and her escort, Andy Stankovics, (right) dance to the theme song, This One's For You.

The presentation of "Harvey" is the Senior Class's happy choice.

Say Myrtle Mae, (below) you're cute.

Tryouts for the comedy "Harvey" begin this year during the week of September 26th. The rehearsals, under the direction of Mrs. Lindsay Buchy, begins on October 1st.

A special program is designed for "Harvey" showing him as a large rabbit. Upon opening the cover, one finds Harvey invisible, and the comedy begins.

Renting a costume at his own expense, Joe Davenport surprises the audience, as well as Mrs. Buchy and Mrs. Nicholls, by appearing as the six foot rabbit at curtain call.

Mrs. Buchy, being well pleased with the presentation, praises her twelve member cast as "one of the nicest groups of students with whom she has ever worked."

So you see (above), Elwood has to be committed.

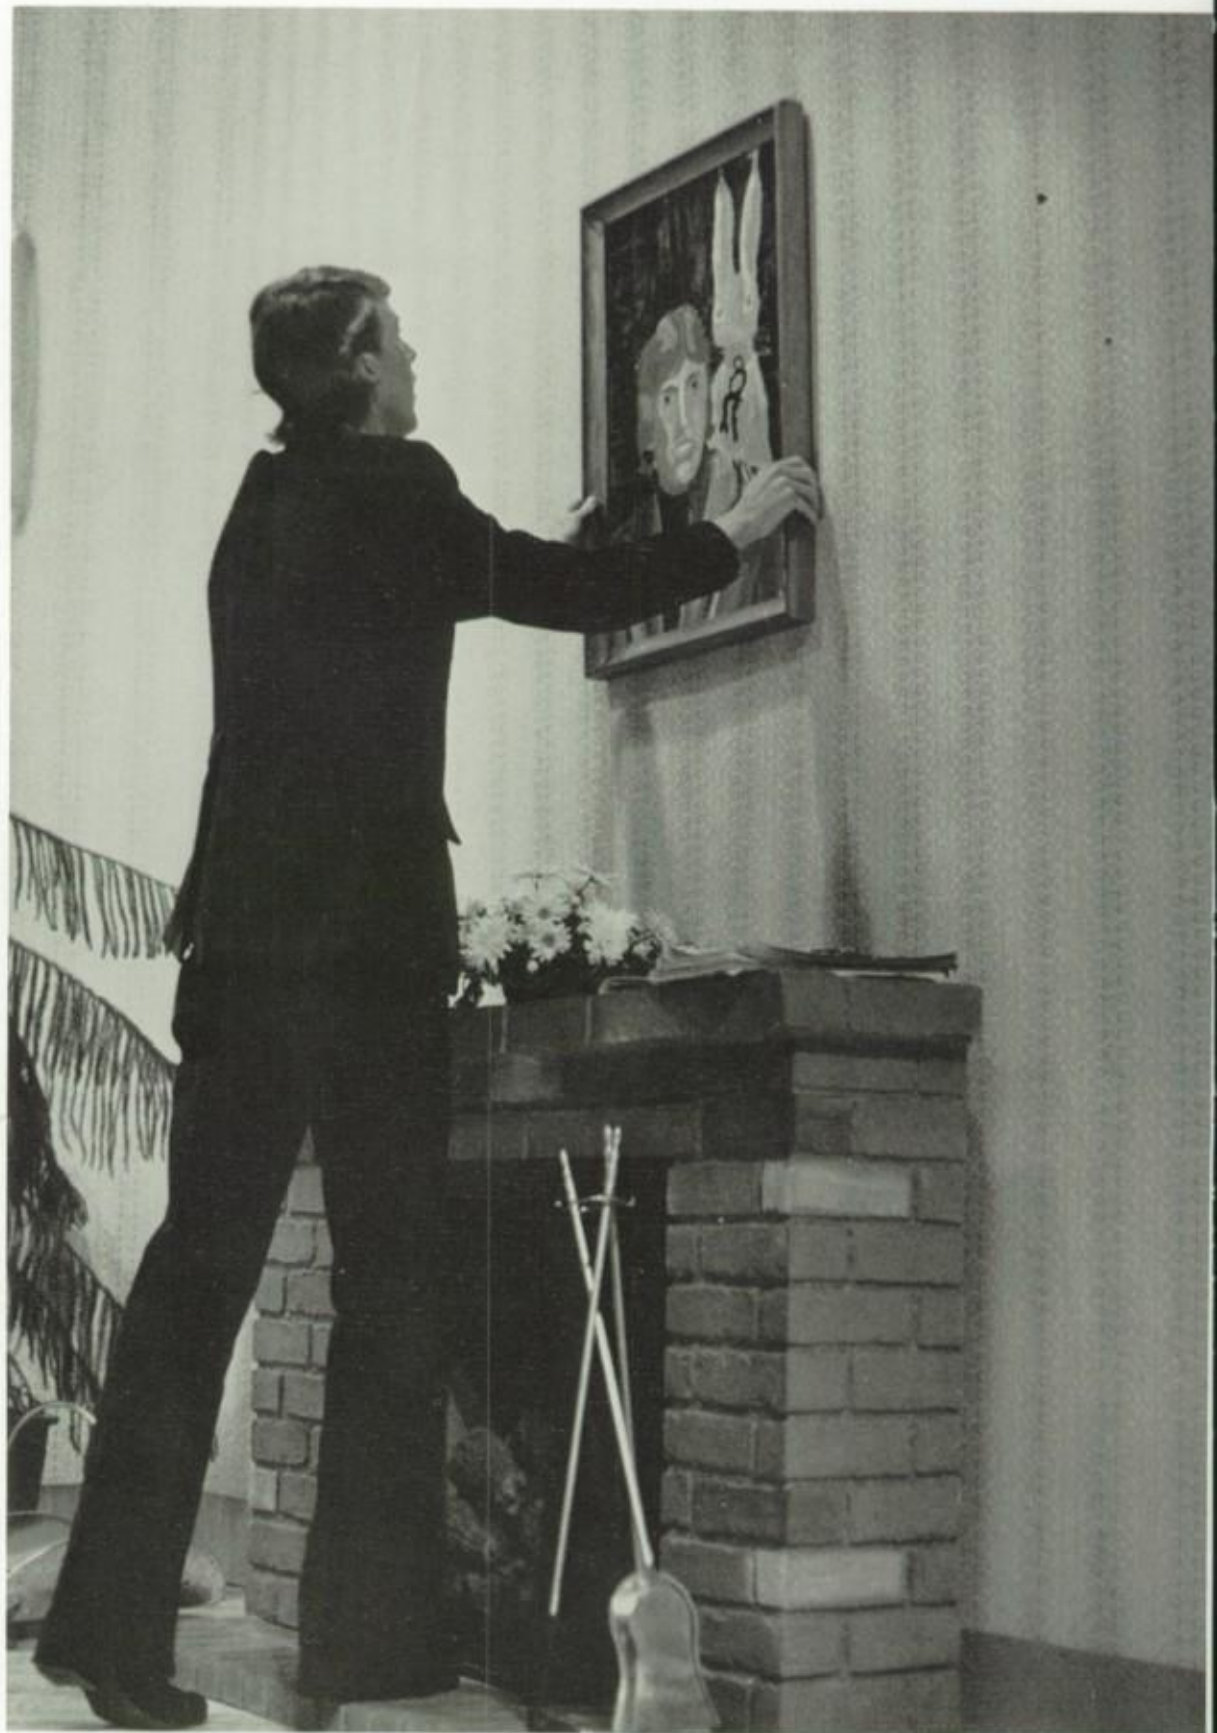

Could Elwood and Harvey (top) be at this bar?

Please, I don't want any tea, I want to talk to Elwood (below).

Elwood (right) hangs up a picture of him and his best friend, Harvey.

Dr. Sanderson, (left) you say Elwood drinks?

We, the Class of 1978, have found much success and gained much knowledge in our four years of high school.

During our freshman year, we raised approximately $500.00, started the Faculty-Student basketball game, presented the first freshman play, and gave the annual Freshman dance its start. Led our first year by President Tammy Higgins, Vice-President Vickie Hill, Secretary Yvonne Casada, and Treasurer Donna Mellett, we anxiously approached the tenth grade and the Senior High School.

Tom Romanello led us as sophomores, being president, assisted by Fred Stratton, vice-president, Yvonne Casada, secretary, and Marti Snapp, treasurer. This busy year was centered around planning for the next Junior Prom. To gain money for this big responsibility, the class sold pins and sponsored other fund-raising events.

Raising approximately $1300.00 during our junior year, through a number of sources, Tammy Higgins, Vickie Hill, Yvonne Casada, and Teri Osborn strived to organize the 1977-1978 Junior Prom and its' activities. Pam Adkins was boasted as our class choice for Prom Queen, with her court, Lisa Whalen, Teri Osborn, and Sally Connolly. Rounding off our eleventh year by winning the All-Star Competition, we all anticipated the upcoming nine months.

The fall of 1977 brought with it the issue of choosing class officers for our senior year. The positions were filled with the same students who had led us the previous year. T-shirts displaying the name of each member of the class were sold and plans for graduation began. The idea of a senior trip was suggested to further unite the class before we went our separate ways. And, although, each of us, as an individual, will go our separate way, we will never be forgotten as one: the Class of 1978.

PROM NIGHT . . .

hold on to every minute before it becomes a memory.

(Below) Some enjoy dancing . . .

Couples arrive at the Sheraton Hilton on May 27th ready to dance and talk the night away. As each girl enters, she is given a gold Prom necklace and a small red and black booklet. The tables contain candles with a wreath of carnations around them. As each couple looks for a nice table and friends to sit with, the band begins to play. A few couples begin to dance, some divide into small groups and talk quietly among themselves, while others go from table to table snapping pictures. As the night comes to an end everyone crowds around to hear the announcement of the Prom Queen and her Court. Second runners-up Sally Connolly and Teri Osborn and first runner-up Lisa Whalen step forward to receive their crowns and bouquets of roses. Pam Adkins is named 1977 Prom Queen. As Pam finishes the Queen's Dance, everyone joins in and finishes the evening off by dancing to the theme song IF by Bread.

. . . while others (below) prefer to sit and talk with one another.

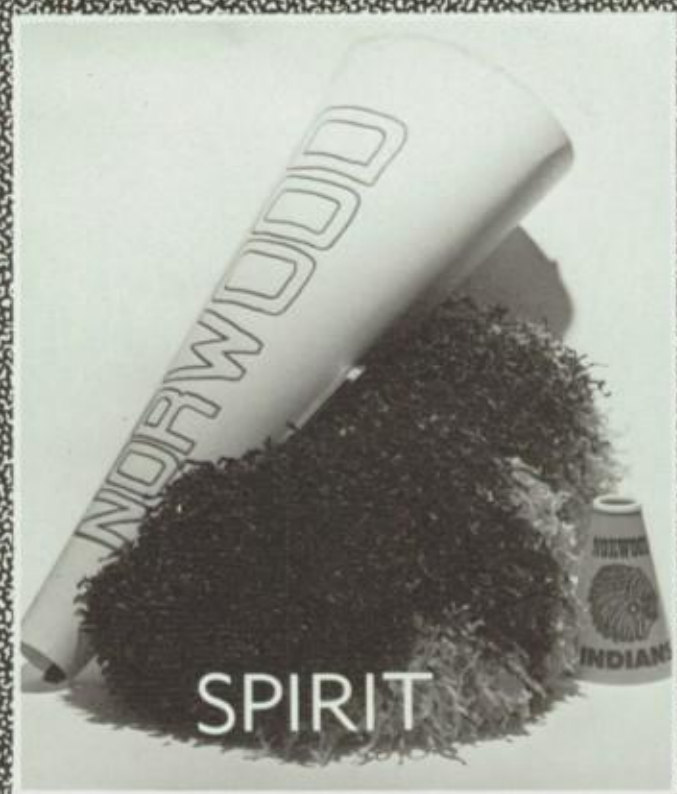

Pam Paul, Lisa Whalen, Nancy Carr, Denise Clark, Yvonne Casada and their escorts (below) await the announcement of the Prom Queen.

Each school has spirit, but students at Norwood share a very special brand. Cheerleaders cheer our teams to victory while the pep band beats out its support. Dedicated Band members, Indianettes, Flag Corps, and Majorettes devote hours of practice on and off the field to perfect performances for football games and contests. Pep Club rallies bring support to all activities and fill the halls with electric excitement which flows steadily through the student body. Classes come together proving their spirit is greater than all other classes. Most of all, spirit reflects our pride for Norwood and ourselves. When we think of high school days in the future, we will remember our joys and failures and the spirit we shared during our years at Norwood High School.

This year's Pep Club is led by President Debbie Pittman, Vice-President Robin Lomboy, Secretary Carolyn Lykins, and Treasurer Paul Keith. The advisors, Mrs. Nicholls and Mrs. Hoover supervise the meetings and promote the various activities and programs sponsored by Pep Club. When sufficient student interest is shown, Pep Club rents a bus for transportation to the away football and basketball games. Throughout the year, a number of bake sales is held to raise money for the treasury.

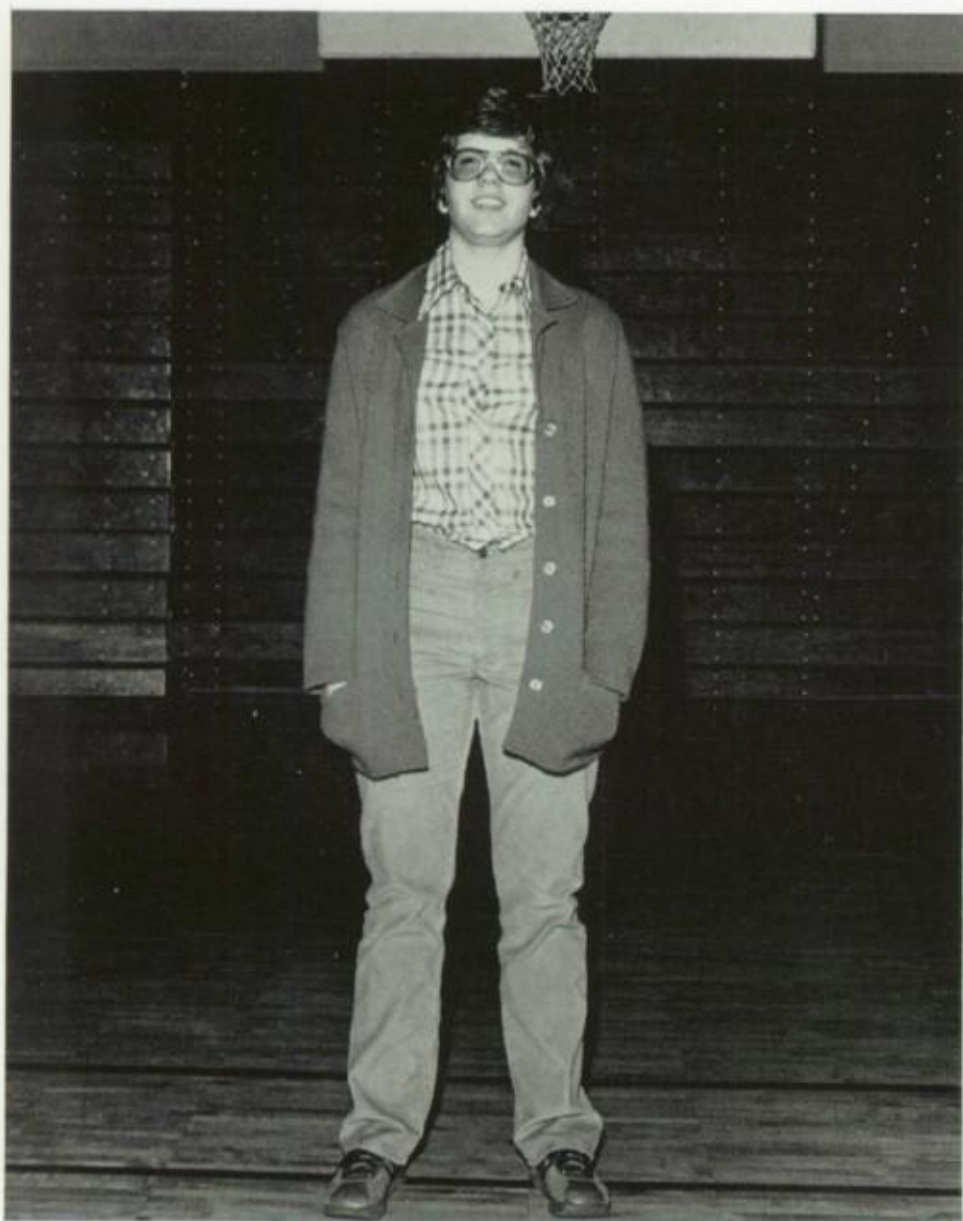

Keeping with past tradition, a new Norwood Indian was appointed. Chris Parton holds this position and is responsible for leading cheers and promoting spirit at the games. Another tradition of Pep Club is to elect a Homecoming Queen candidate. Representing Pep Club this year was the winning candidate, Lisa Whalen, who rode in the parade in the club's car and was crowned Queen at the 1977 Homecoming dance on October 8, 1977.

Star athletes receive community recognition.

Many superb athletes pass through Norwood's halls each year. While the majority of them gain school-wide recognition, others receive special recognition throughout the community. Annually, at the end of each sport season, coaches meet to vote on the most valuable athletes in the league and in the city. Others receive honorable mention on the all-city team. We, at Norwood, have produced talented athletes in such sports as tennis, basketball, football, and baseball. The people chosen maintain their position until the following year.

Archery Club begins right on target.

Advisor Mr. Gruening starts the archery club this year with eight team members. The boys (no girls have joined) meet four times a week. The techniques of archery and scoring are learned and practiced, and the team members compete among themselves occasionally.

The team is not involved in any school leagues, but Mr. Gruening would like to form a team for school competitions after the boys gain more experience.

Girls in Athletics brings girls together to further promote the popularity of girls' sports. Led by President Patty McCaffrey, girls from the basketball, volleyball, swimming, softball, and tennis teams get together to raise money and have fun. The girls sell red and blue gym bags, sponsor a playday, and the first Faculty-volleyball team game to get funds for equipment. A Sports Day is sponsored for grade school girls to learn the fundamentals of sports. The club also sells Norwood jackets and opens up the gym in the mornings for girls to get extra practice.

Passing by the student government room, one would find a Student Council meeting in session. Showing his leadership ability, Jim Gillespie presides over the Council. Each class is represented by selected students from their own grade level. Voicing their opinions about school affairs, each representative returns afterward to his or her homeroom and reports the progress made.

Student Council sponsors the ever popular Spirit Week. Now an annual event, Spirit Week has become four days of enjoyment and involvement in promoting spirit. Student Council strives to improve school policies and privileges for students. Controversial issues include an open lunch hour and a smoking lounge. With hard work and patience, the Student Council has the power to help achieve the students' goals.

The Marching Band wins two trophies; Field Commanders bring home two first place trophies.

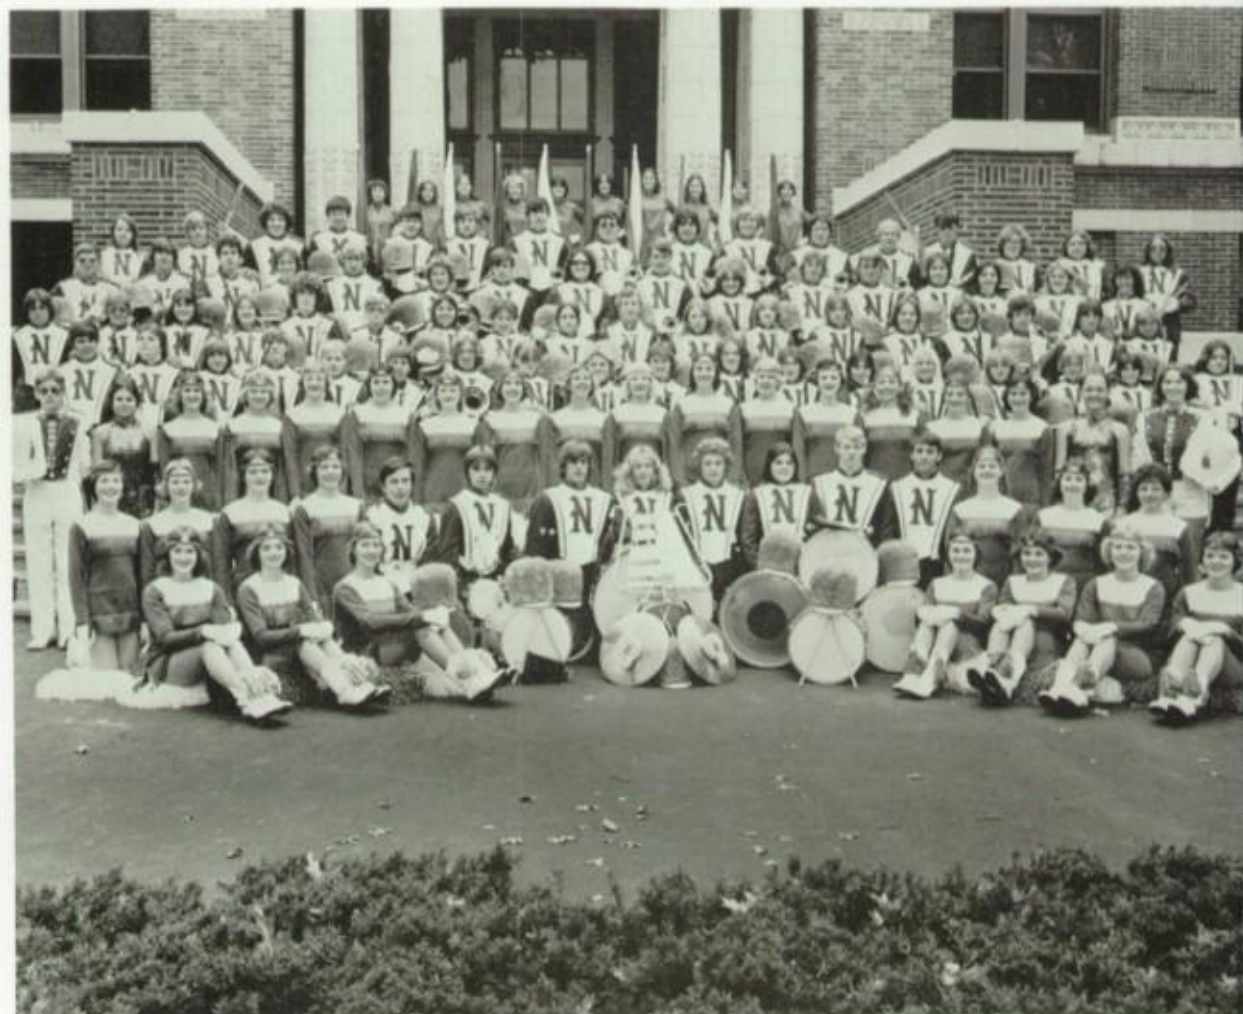

The Marching Band promotes spirit at the home and the away football games. The Band begins the year by going to the Roger Bacon Invitational. On October 13th, the Band travels to Columbus, Ohio, for the West Showcase competitions. Here the Marching Band places second out of 13 schools with field commanders Senior Vickie Hill and Junior Dan Hursh winning a first place trophy. On October 29th, the Band enters the Miami Trace competition, winning third place and Vickie Hill and Dan Hursh bring home another first place trophy. The same day the Band presents a half-time show at Capital University.

The Band is sporting new uniforms. New also this year is the Flag Corps under the direction of 1977 graduate Theresa Romanello. Also performing with the Band is the returning Indianettes under the direction of Mrs. Linder.

Robin Davis (left) plays the trombone during the half-time show.

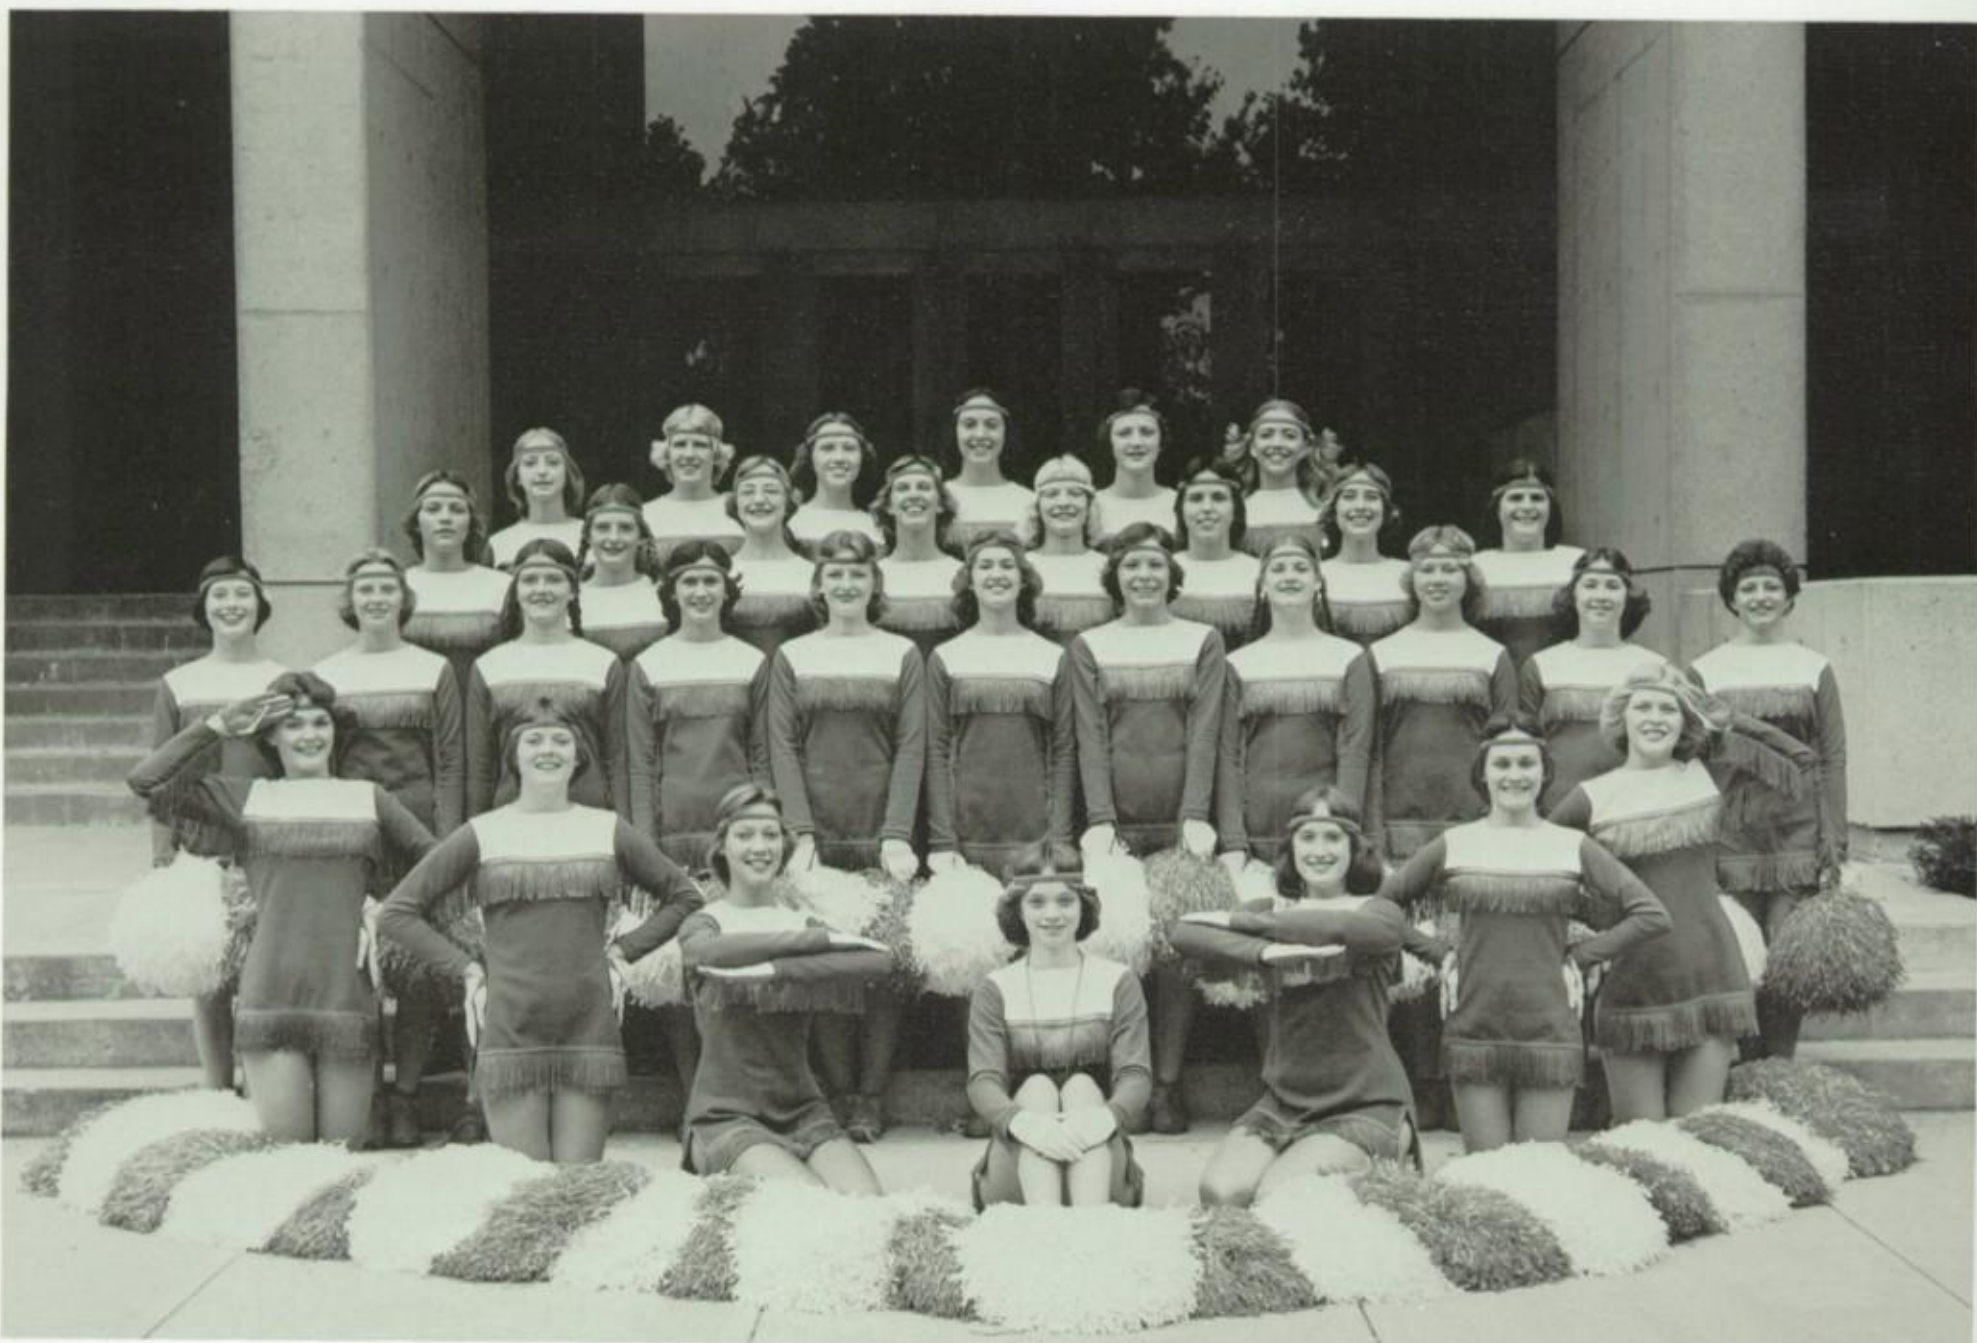

Not only does Pep Band play at the basketball games, but the band also provides the back-up music for the Indianettes. The band members, selected by Mr. White, play popular songs like "Sir Duke," "Mash," "Horse," "TSOP," "Roundabout," and "We Will Rock You." Pep Band keeps the fans entertained at the basketball games by providing music for the Indianettes to perform.

The Indianettes lead the Homecoming parade to Shea Stadium.

The Indianettes accompany the marching band at all half-time performances during the football season. They also perform with the marching band in many competition shows throughout the area.

The Indianettes perform with the pep band during the basketball season. Indianettes, accompanied by Pep Band in their first outdoor performance, take first place at the Taylor Competition on September 24th.

In addition to their many practices on the field and in the gym, a one day clinic held on December 3rd and bake sales keep Indianettes busy.

The Flag Corps adds color to the marching band.

Accompanying the N.H.S. marching band for the first time is the 77-78 flag corps. In its ranks are twelve girls led by head captain Becky Ellis, first lieutenant Robin Picklesimer, and second lieutenant Elaine Braun. Advised by former Indianette Theresa Romanello, the girls work diligently to overcome the handicap of being a first year squad.

Techniques are learned at clinics over the summer. They are incorporated into many shows for enjoyable half-times.

Throughout football season the corps participates in parades and other performances with the band. Superior ratings are attained at competitions as the squad vies against experienced corps.

Candy sales, bake sales, and selling calendars keep the girls busy raising funds for projects.

Along with the band and Indianettes, the corps is given the distinction of performing the half-time show for Capital University's homecoming game. For our own homecoming, the girls helped in the construction of the award winning band float.

N.H.S. is proud of its new organization that adds new color to the marching band.

Mixed Ensemble comes together for a lively performance.

Mixed Ensemble is a combination of girls and boys who enjoy singing. The voices of Mixed Ensemble can be heard singing at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Mixed Ensemble is under the supervision of Mrs. White. When they perform they wear red blazers with the emblem representing Mixed Ensemble.

The Girls' Ensemble livens up the program with a song.

Under Mrs. Judy White's direction, Girls' Ensemble brings frequent entertainment to the community.

The group consists of ten girls who practice often for performances. As do the other music groups at Norwood, the Ensemble highlights the concert in the spring.

Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs sing for enjoyment.

The Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs under the supervision of Mrs. White, practice after school for the Christmas and Spring Concerts. The members of both glee clubs are energetic and enjoy singing. The practices are fun and everyone involved seems to enjoy being a member.

Chorale members sing because they want to — not because they have to.

Norwood's Chorale is a select group of 50 students who practice everyday. The singers receive one full credit as members. The Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Spring programs are highlighted by their performance. A March contest is also attended by the group. Selections come from several different styles of music, bringing variety to both concerts and programs.

Concert Band provides students with culture.

Every year after the marching season ends, the band members prepare for the concert season. The Concert Band performs in the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Through hard practice and work, the Concert Band goes to spring competition trying to achieve a one rating. Concert Band ends the year by playing Pomp and Circumstance and Love and Honor at the graduation exercises.

Concert Band consists of (below): Back Row: Mr. Ollendick, Mr. White, Melanie Ripperger, Bryan Fisher, Tony Wall, Bob Silber, Ron Dalton, Mark Dishon, Donna Mellett, Eric Timerding, Randy Cox, Liz Saylor, Steve Marshall, Dave Farmer, Mike Davis, Cindy Brown, Wayne Johnson. The Norwood High School Jazz Band performs at a variety of musical programs throughout the year. Popular jazz songs are their speciality.

The group plays at the annual Spring and Christmas Concerts. They accompany "The Silhouettes" on occasion, and are considered a talented section of the N.H.S. musical department.

The Silhouettes entertain with miniature floor show — supper club style.

The fourteen boys in black tux, white ruffled tux shirts, and powder blue dinner jackets and the fourteen girls in long white gowns, three quarter length gloves, and powder blue shoes plus two lighting boys make up the group known as "The Silhouettes." This group has been in existence for three years.

They will perform at the Christmas Assembly, Indian Creek Clubhouse, Greater Cincinnati F.O.P. Dinner Dance, P.T.A.'s, Kiwanis Dinner, Norwood Professional Business Women's Banquet, and a demonstration concert at Northern Kentucky University.

The musical program consists of a typical but miniature floor show supper club style. The singers are augmented by an electric bass guitar, lead guitar, piano and drum set. They average twelve to fifteen performances a year. Many of the students in this ensemble pursue music, theatre, or television careers upon graduation.

The singing group "The Silhouettes" consists of (left): Back Row: Cindy Bush, Craig Miller, Bonita Jordan, Gary Ross, Patti Ryan, Rick Daniels, Beth Bowden, Tim Alsip. Third Row: Paul Keith, Nancy Johnson, Theresa Bryant, Janet Smith, Vicki Seiter, Debbie Pitman, Celeste Yancey, Tony Romanello. Second Row: Joe Graf, Lisa Shouse, Dave Couch, Debbie Popplewell, Mr. Ward, Sherry King, Mike Schulte, Beth Roberts, Eric Timerding. Front Row: Steve Bishop, Ron Dalton, Jack Jones.

Coaches aid in making better athletic programs at Norwood High School.

As always, the coaches are the mainstay of our sports teams. They extend their experience and knowledge for the school and the students' benefit. With new coaches continuing to join the ranks, the staff has improved greatly and remains devoted through defeat, victory, energy crisis, and flu epidemics.

Mr. David Moore (right) is named the Hamilton County American Division Cross Country Coaches Association's "Coach of the Year."

Cheerleaders cheer our teams onto victory with their outstanding enthusiasm.

After tryouts in the spring, for the first time, eight Varsity and six Reserve cheerleaders are elected to serve for the '77-'78 athletic seasons. Advised by Mrs. Porr and Junior High teacher Miss Behler, the girls sell ribbons, buttons, plan pep rallies and practice long hours.

Summer camps are attended and new cheers brought back. A car wash and mini clinic are held in the spring to raise money.

The cheerleaders' main purpose is to spark enthusiasm at games, and spur their respective teams onto victory.

Sophomores are most prominent on the sports team. However, as their school careers progress, new interests, responsibilities, and jobs claim more of their time, so many students tend to quit the athletic programs. Therefore, the returning athletes become more valuable as their experience and skill increases. Seniors who are three and four year veterans of the athletic programs deserve the recognition due to them for the abundance of time, devotion, and sacrifice. Their combined and individual capabilities give them the distinction of being star athletes in the eyes of fellow students.

Norwood defeats
Glen Este, Turpin,

ing the season
three and seven.

The Indians finish the season this year with a 3-7 record, improving last year's record by adding two more games to the winning column.

The team is headed by tri-captains Dwayne Ballou, John McGinnis, and Doug Morgan. First year player, Tom Nolte, started out by making some fantastic catches and was one of the leading receivers in the League.

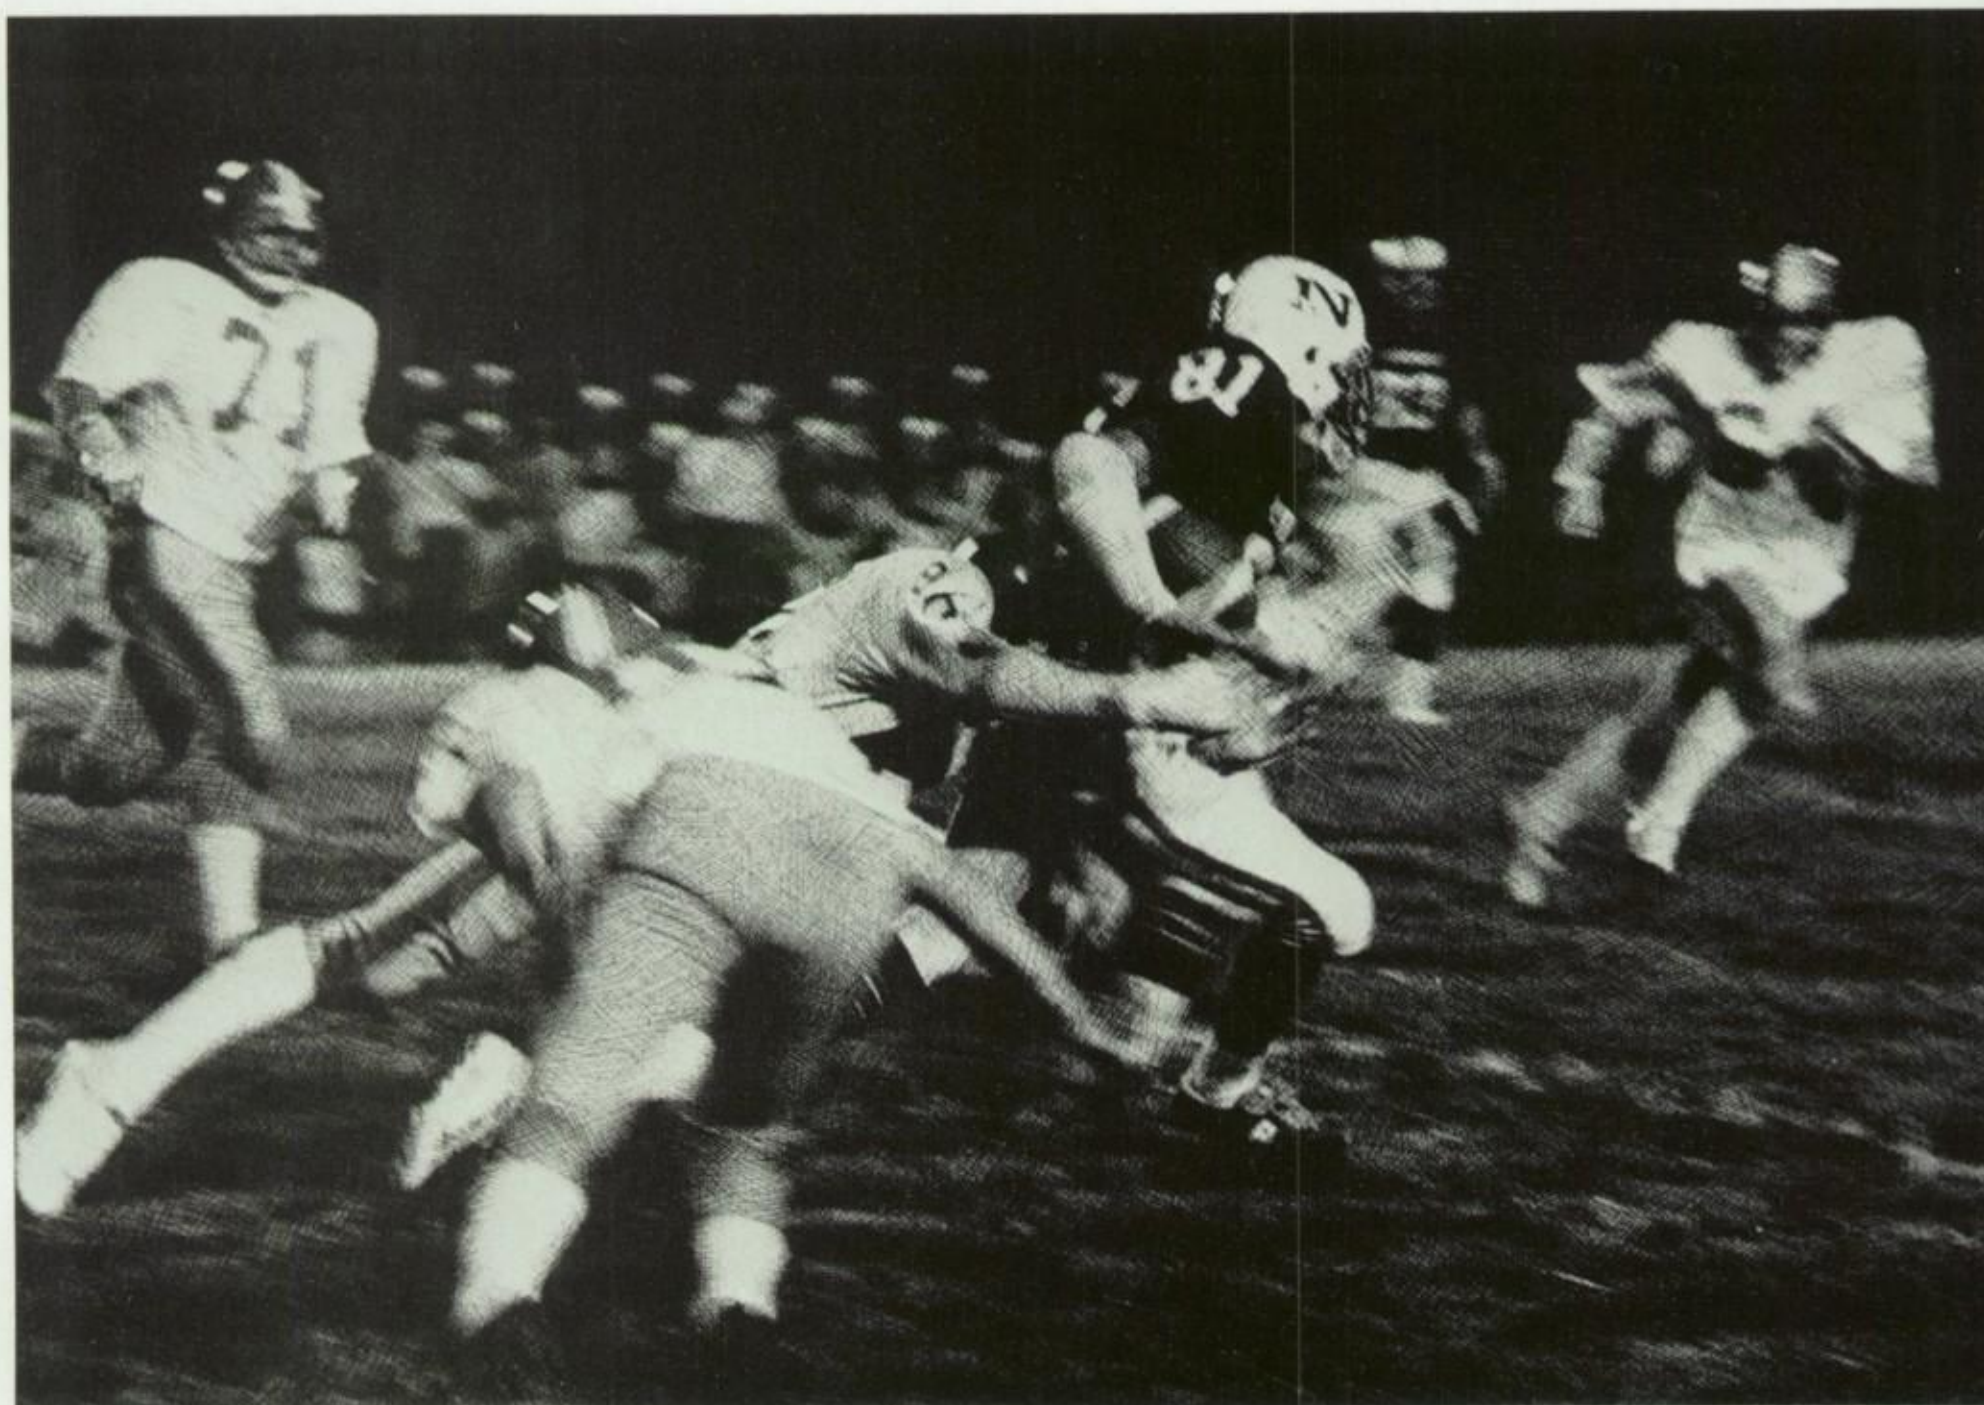

The team also received help from junior Tim Wagers who is the Indians leading rusher and one of the top rushers in the city. Mike Morgan has his best passing season in the two years he's been playing the role of the starting quarterback.

The Indians have an impressive season as the Norwood fans gain more confidence in the players. Hopefully the Indians will roll on for that 10-0 season next year and continue that Norwood Pride.

The Football team consists of (right): Back Row: Asst. Coaches, Jim Berry, Ed Kamphake, Steve Schwankhaus, Head Coach Pat Orloff, Asst. Coaches, Ron Jones and Dave Grimm. Sixth Row: Steve Degaro, Larry Barber, Don Jones, Captain John McGinnis. Fifth Row: Kelvin Patterson, Terri Fike, Wendel Crawford, Jim Hendley, Bill Price, Darrell Popplewell, Mike Brooks, Larry Fanning, Dave Nolte, Tim Dunbar. Fourth Row: Mgr. Ted Hoffman, Gary Yates, Mike Schulte, Jim Urmetz, Gary Cooper, Troy Bales, Russ McGurin, Greg Hegedus, Don Jackson, Frankie Otts, Mgr. Dave Helton. Third Row: Mgr. Troy Helton, Captain Doug Morgan, Mike Morgan, Leo Geraci, Rick Evans, Tom Nolte, Kenny Ray Miracle, Ken Bowman, Jeff Manzi, Chester Centers, Mgr. Kevin Ryan. Second Row: Mgr. Matt Morgan, Ed McCarthy, Bob Harper, Brian Vogt, Tony Hoffard, Randy Cook, Gary Gamble, Mark Morgan, Captain Dwayne Ballou, Mgr. Bobby Helton. Front Row: Joe Geraci, Darwin Patterson, Chuck Schlie, Chip Steger, Tim Wagers, Bob Gilreath, Todd Jackson, Brian Pillman, Tim Chinn.

Experience is the major influence for victory for the Girls' Tennis Team.

Tennis Team members for this year are (below): Jeanette Bientz, Beth Bowdon, Celeste Yancey, Katie O'Connor, Tracey Martin, Kari Junker, Debbie Roberts, and Ms. Garrett.

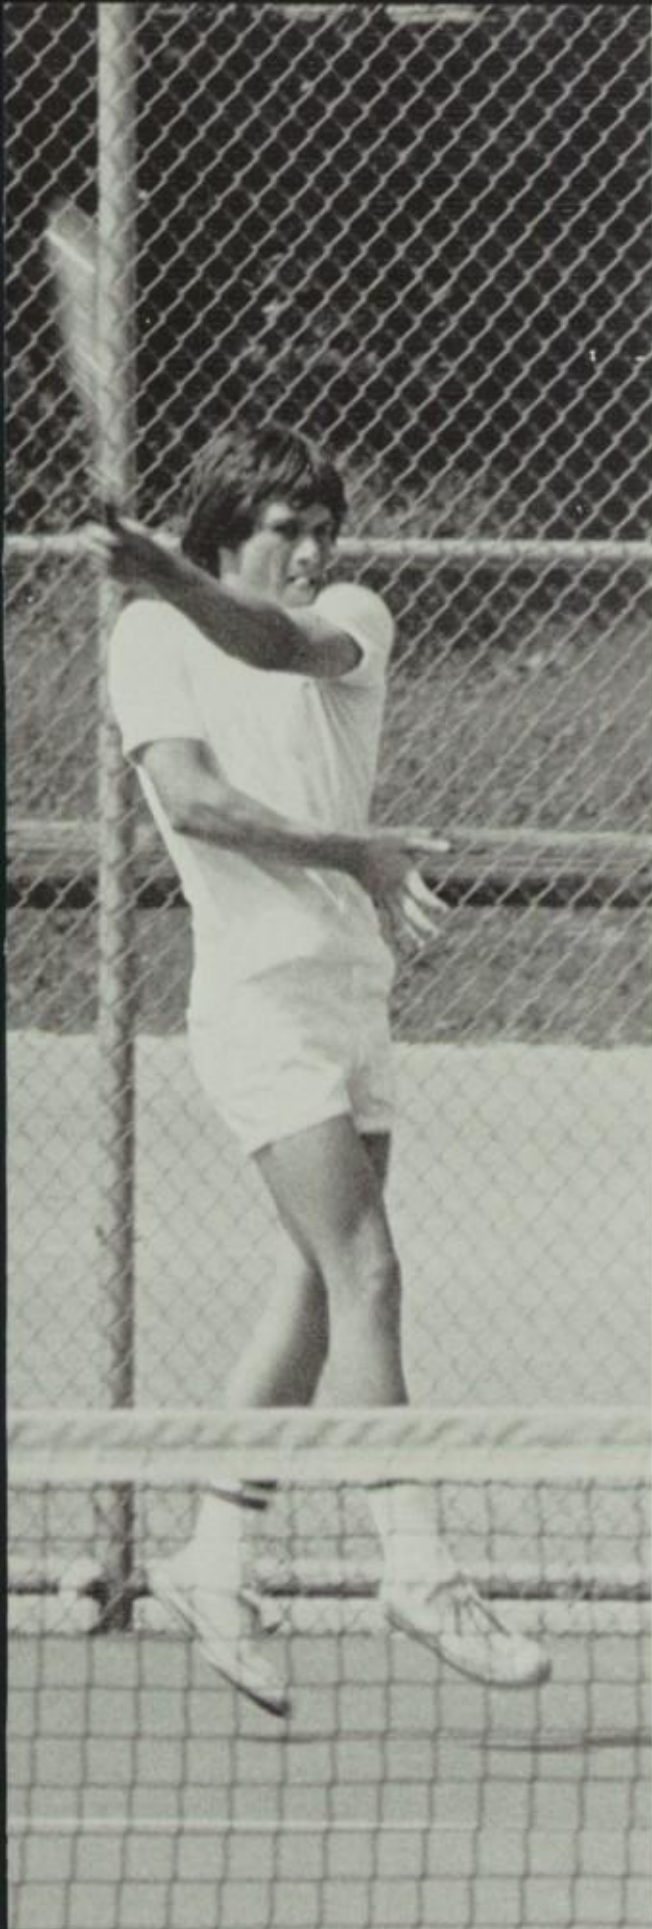

Katie's expression (below right) shows excitement as she practices serving to the opposite court.

With an extended schedule this season, the 1977 Girls' Tennis Team begins practicing in late summer. Coach Garrett is fortunate to have six returning players. Senior captains Tracey Martin and Celeste Yancey are among the veterans returning to the courts. The girls are concentrating on improving their serves and placement of the serve into the opposite court. Individual improvement is apparent as Julie Crouch and Celeste Yancey tally the best separate scores. The girls participate in sectional and other competitions, and seek the support of the student body at matches.

The Boys' Tennis Team excels in both group and individual ability.

Chris Leary (left) with deep concentration and determination returns a serve to the other team.

The 1977 Boys' Tennis team finished their season on the courts with a 1-13 record. Kevin Hanrahan is tagged the most valuable player holding the best team record (8-6). Second place singles was held by Duane Thompson, and third place — Brian Prather. Greg Wiles and the most improved player, Pat Hopkins, finished on top in the doubles.

1977 senior, Duane Thompson, finished second in the Amelia Tournament and in the sectionals, Kevin Hanrahan advanced to the quarter finals.

After this first season as coach, Mr. Baker was proud of his individual team members' improvement.

As in most league sports, volleyball has a reserve team as well as a varsity team. Although the girls are classified as 'reserve' they must still practice and develop the same skills as the varsity.

Beth Griffis and Sue Fenske are the captains for the 1977 Volleyball team, leading the team to only a few victories.

Being a member of the reserve team enables a girl to tryout for the varsity team next year.

The Varsity Volleyball Team had a good season ending it by going to the Gardens for a final game.

Opening of school leads to the tryouts of the Girls' Volleyball team. Many girls go out for the team, leaving a wide range of team members to choose from. The girls sharpen and learn skills such as the bump, spike, and power serves, which are now used in competitive play.

Patti McCaffrey and Ann Tepe lead the team to a final record of 17-24. Patti received the Most Valuable Player award, while Teresa Brock got the Most Improved Player award.

Ending of the season causes a majority of the girls to plunge into other sports and activities.

Cross Country team is best in many years.

Steve Marshall and Jack McDaniel (below right) try to keep up with the Colerain pack at the League Meet.

This year's Cross Country team is the best in Norwood history. Several team members helped themselves by running over the summer. Steve Stidham and Steve Wilson each ran over 300 miles. Jeff Lucas and Steve Marshall ran over 500 miles, while Dave Elstun and Scott Fennell ran over 600 miles in the summer. The team finished fourth place in the league meets. Finishing in third place at the sectionals qualified them to go to the District meet, where they finished 12th out of 16 teams. Dave Elstun, Scott Fennell, Jeff Lucas and Steve Marshall qualified for the All-Star meet, and Dave Elstun was named the Most Valuable Player. Jeff Brown, Most Improved Runner, started the season as the fifth man on Reserve and finished as fourth man on Varsity. Several team members — Dave Elstun, Scott Fennell, Harold Hunt, Jeff Brown, and Steve Stidham — ran in the Junior Olympics and qualified to go to the Region VI meet in Chicago. The team was coached by Assistant Coach, Stacy Osborne and Coach Dave Moore, who was named H.C.A. Coach of the Year.

The Boys' Basketball teams honor the school with a winning season.

The Reserve Team consists of (left): Back Row: Mgr. Tony Romanello, Ray Moreland, Darrell Popplewell, Jeff Bigelow, Dan Kollar, Tim Kidd, Paul Wilson, Coach Schlensker. Front Row: Mgr. Dave Sullivan, Tony Meece, Denny Fee, Don Lynch, Bill Adair, Ed Reed, Kenny Kelly.

Coach Dick Bouldin feels his players for '77-'78 are very dedicated to victory. The team is led by Captain Bob Murphy. Being a senior, this is Bob's second year as a varsity player, and is the team's leading scorer.

Much enthusiasm is evident as the team greatly improves on last season's record.

The only sophomore on the varsity team is Jim Wohl. Jim is impressive this year, and gives Norwood hope for the future.

Teamwork and outstanding individual ability combine to make a winning girls' basketball team.

The Girls' Basketball Team has come a long way, baby.

The team has reached an equal status with its male counterparts. Last year the girls were honored with their first pep rally.

Coach Buede welcomes back five returning players whom she praises. Seniors Patti McCaffrey and Roxanne Bridges are back in the starting lineup along with Maria Kothe and Julie Crouch.

One of the most noticeable changes is the appointment of Mr. Siebert, reserve coach. Both he and Ms. Buede are proud of their girls and their basketball efforts this year.

Sports enthusiast, Patty McCaffrey excels in all sports, especially basketball.

Patty's days after school (above) are spent in the gym with a basketball.

Patty shows determination (above) as she attempts to rebound the ball.

Patty (above) scores another two points for our team.

During her career of playing basketball for Norwood, Patty McCaffrey has brought recognition and honor to the sport. Her individual statistics during the three years show gained confidence and talent. She holds the best score for a Norwood girl, a high game of 42 points against Indian Hill.

Patty's performance during her sophomore year won her the Most Valuable Player title. Junior year accomplishments include first team all-league, first team all-city and MVP. As a senior, Patty is captain, first team all-league, first team all-city, all-state and MVP, once again.

The Wrestlers have good ability on the mat.

Though this year's Wrestling Team is young and inexperienced, the team is ambitious. The team is comprised mainly of sophomores but, despite this, the squad excels individually rather than as a team. Captains Senior Dwayne Ballou and Junior Chip Steger are returning lettermen who lead the team with records of 8-6 and 7-6 respectively. According to Coach Orloff, both Dwayne and Chip rank in the top three positions of their respective weight classes. With this the team looks good as upcoming sectionals approach at Colerain High School.

Rita Bradford (bottom right) practices the breast stroke.

The Swim Team members for this year are (below): Beth Griffis, Julie Motz, Barb Nickson, Rita Bradford, and Mary Ann Brown.

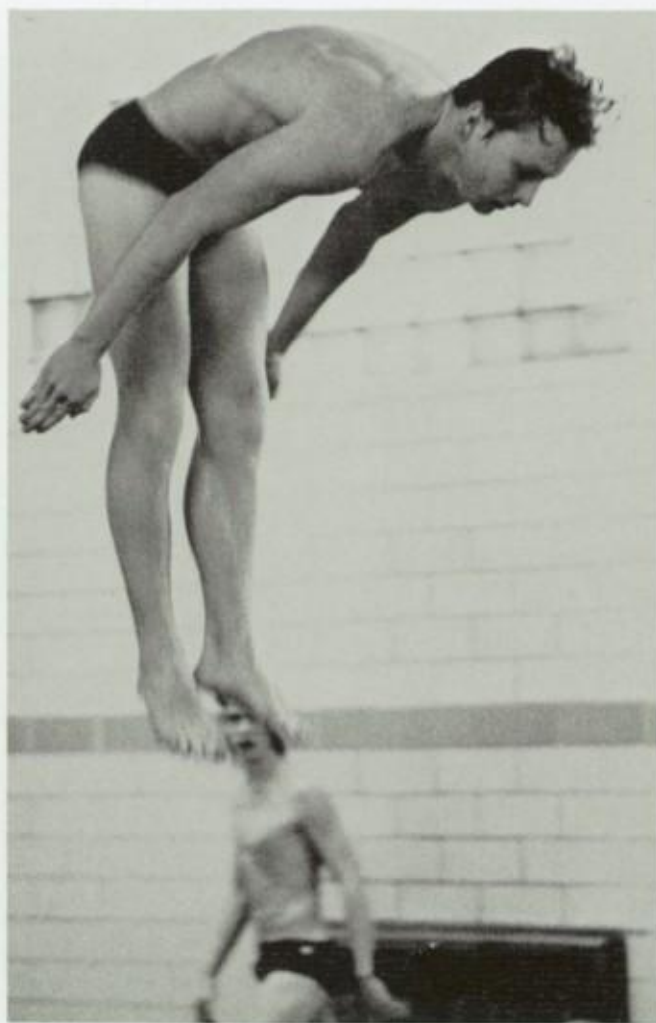

Captains Julie Motz and Beth Griffis lead the 1977 Girls' Swim Team. Seven other team members swim to a 2-win season against such teams as Reading, Taylor, St. Bernard, and Wyoming. Barb Nickson receives the team's Most Improved Swimmer Award. Julie Motz swims proudly to be presented the Most Valuable Swimmer title. Sophomore team member Mary Ann Brown returns for the 1978 season as a junior to lead this year's team to victory.

Despite a handicap, the swimmers maintain two victories.

Working under the handicap of a small team this year, Coaches Distler and Schwankhaus have brought the boys' swimming team to two victories. Whereas the majority of league competitors have up to forty swimmers, Norwood supports a team of eleven swimmers. Primarily consisting of sophomores, the team has ability and potential, but lacks experience on the whole. Should the underclass swimmers return next season after one year's experience, the outlook is excellent. The victories this year were over Connors and a second place title after a triangular match with New Richmond and Saint Bernard. Senior, Bob Meyung, qualifies for the swimming sectionals.

Bob Meyung (left) practices his butterfly stroke for an upcoming meet.

The Varsity Softball Team goes to the Harrison Invitational for the first time!

The Girls' Varsity Softball team begins conditioning in March for the first game, April 12, 1977. Coach Joann Bouldin, with co-captains Beth Fitzpatrick and Patty McCaffrey, leads the team to a victory over Turpin 10-5. Even though the season proves to be a losing one, individual players learn and improve. Jean Hurley receives the Most Valuable Player award with Lori Geraci maintaining the highest batting average. The season ends with play in the Harrison Invitational and the girls looking forward to next year.

A large group of sophomore and junior girls show up for the 1977 Reserve Softball team tryouts. Those who make the team work every day after school, running laps and playing softball, conditioning for their first game. Coach Chris Cook and co-captains Julie Crouch and Ann Tepe lead the team to a 2-6 record. The team's first win comes when the girls play Oak Hills and beat them 7-4. Later in the season, the team is victorious over Mt. Healthy 16-12. Looking back Coach Cook thinks the team had an impressive season and learned a lot about fundamentals of softball.

At the Spring Awards Assembly the team is honored with special recognition given to the Most Improved Player, Carolyn Lykins.

"No surprises from the Varsity Baseball Team — just victories."

Denny Fee is being congratulated (top left) by teammates Garry Garrett (15) and Wesley Williams (6) after a home run.

Defeating Aiken 9-4 starts the 1977 Varsity Baseball season. With Danny Ayers' record of 7 wins and 3 losses, the team promotes a winning season. Joe Trauth has a .394 batting average, most hits (37) and most stolen bases (10). Steve Sharp knocks in 3 home runs, 4 triples, and holds a 20 R.B.I. record. The Landmark game holds the most runs for Norwood: 11 runs and 12 hits. Ending the season with a 16 win 13 loss record, and coming in third place during the Glen Este Tournament, is something of which Coach Dave Bemer may be proud.

Captain Mark Kroell (bottom) crosses home plate for a score.

It takes hard practice to become an excellent Track Team runner.

Jack McDaniel (right) awaits for the shot-putt competition.

As in all sports, track requires much devotion from every member. Track team members must stay in shape, therefore, most runners are seen running on the streets of Norwood before the official track season opens. Due to their vigorous training, many members are noted for their capabilities and endurance. Andy Stankovics, who holds 3rd place honors in the 100 yard dash, is a sectional qualifier. Harold Hunt is the Most Improved Player, while Jack McDaniel holds the honors for the high jump and Tim Miracle for the 180 yard low hurdles. With members like the ones listed the Track Team has a successful season.

N.H.S. team runner (left) looks good as he does the high jump.

Jack McDaniel (left) is caught in action as he attempts the long jump.

The Golf Team swings into a good season.

Garry Garrett (bottom right) follows through as he tees off.

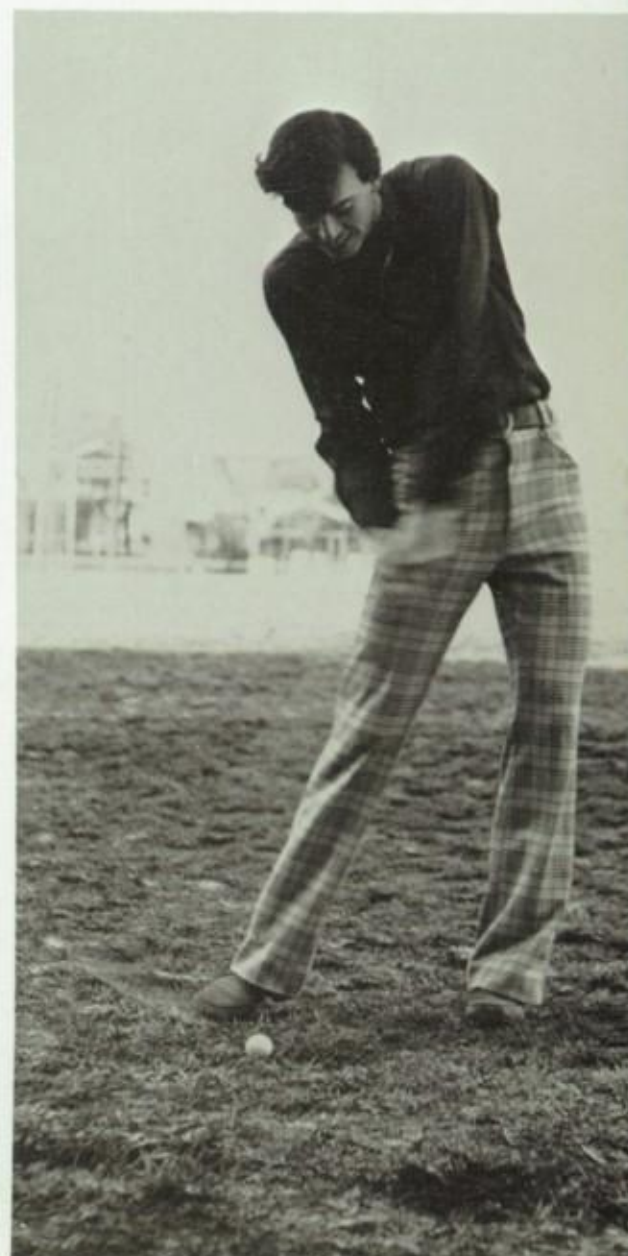

Experience and improvement are the key words to describe this year's golf team. Returning are lettermen Jeff Yancey, Denny Fee, Garry Garrett, and Red Kretton. In his first year, John Shaw is also a team member.

Jeff Yancey is named most valuable player and named to the H.C.A. all-league golf team. His stroke average is an excellent 40.3 for the season.

Second man on the team, Garry Garrett, is the team's most improved player, after much practice last summer.

Coach Coe hopes to be at the top next year, after a 10-16 season this year.

Growing Up In Modern Ohio

The teen-ager needs understanding to grow. To understand him you must know what goes on in his life — not only in his home, but in his school. Learn about school-home partnership and responsibilities. Attend the High School P.T.A.

An end

or a beginning?

There was a time when a high school diploma could be considered an end — sufficient education for the job ahead. But no more. Not in these days of ever-advancing technology and intense individual competition. Now, whether you're planning on a white-collar or blue-collar job, the requirements are much the same — more knowledge, more skills, more education. And that means study beyond high school. The decision is yours: Make it carefully, for it will probably be the most important one you'll ever make. We at Siemens-Allis hope it will be for further study. Deeply involved in space-age technology ourselves, we know first-hand the crucial importance of special skills and education. Just as you will, in the future — when it counts.

March . . .

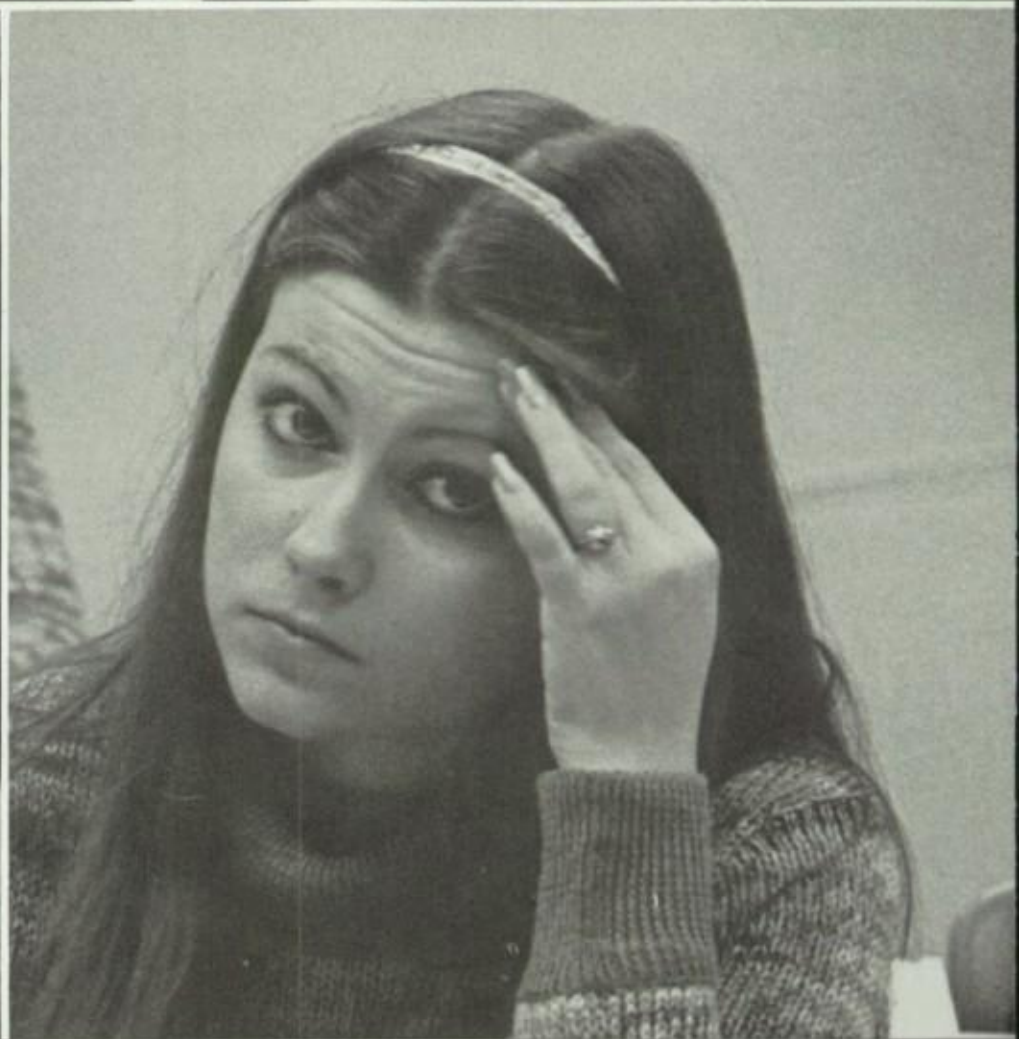

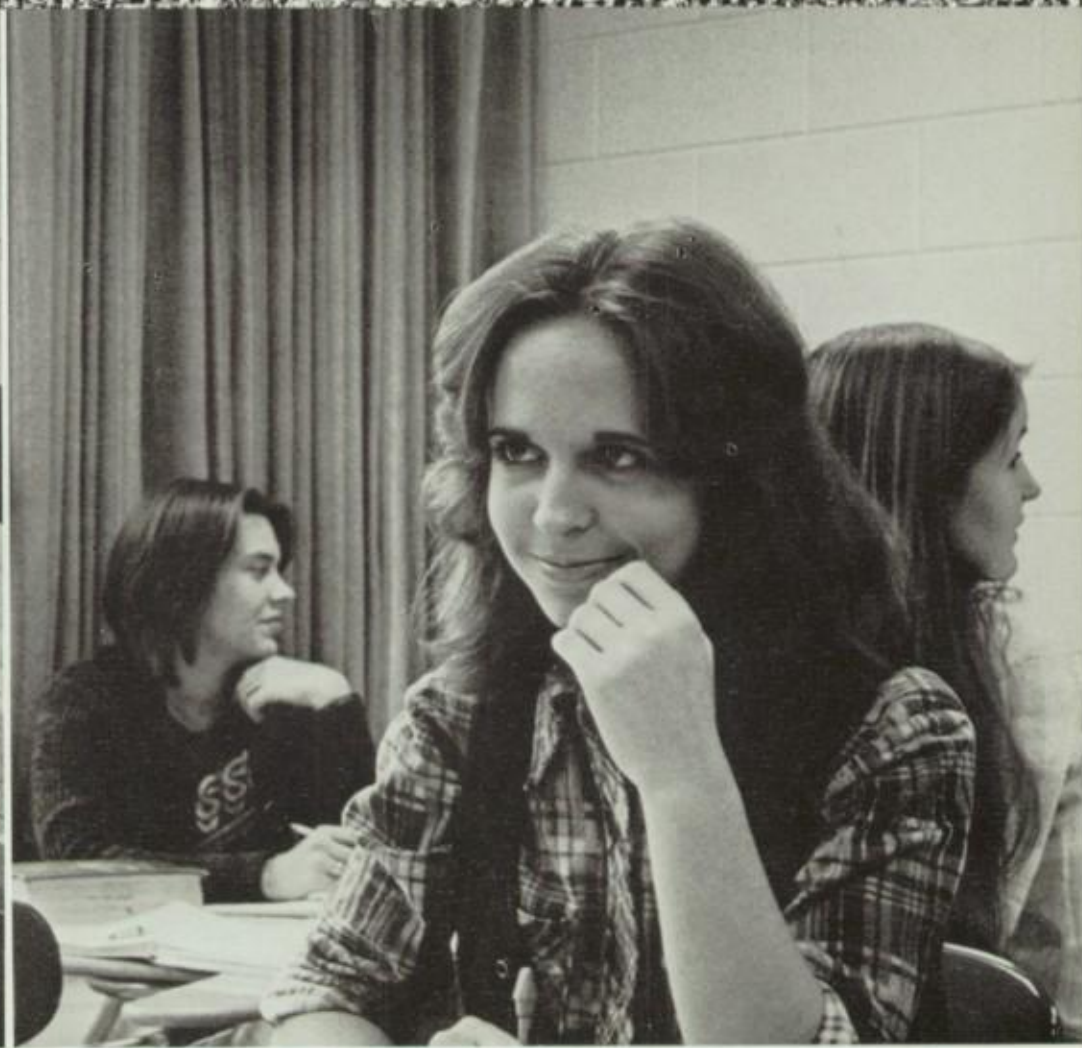

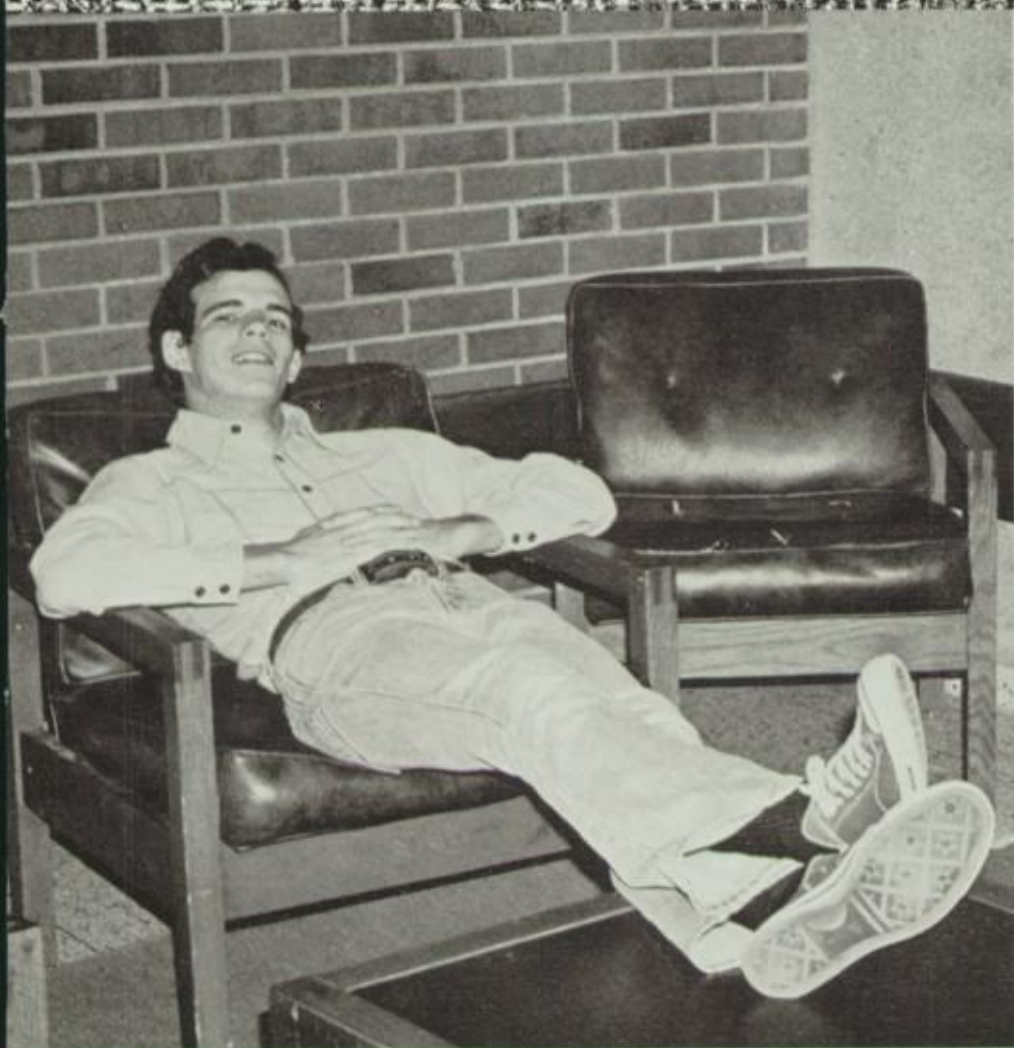

Activities flourish

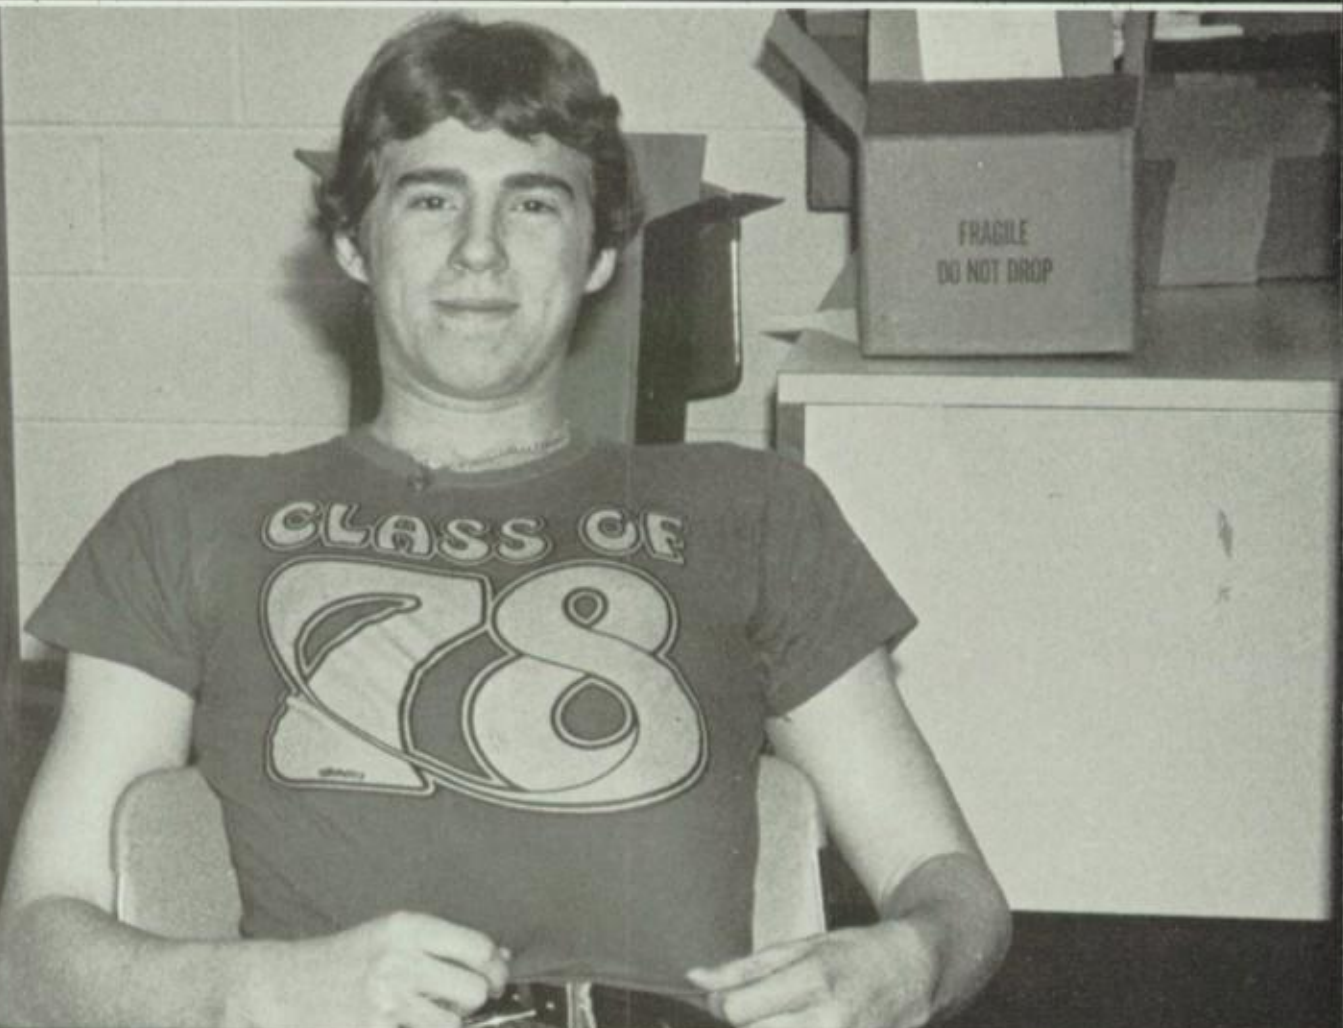

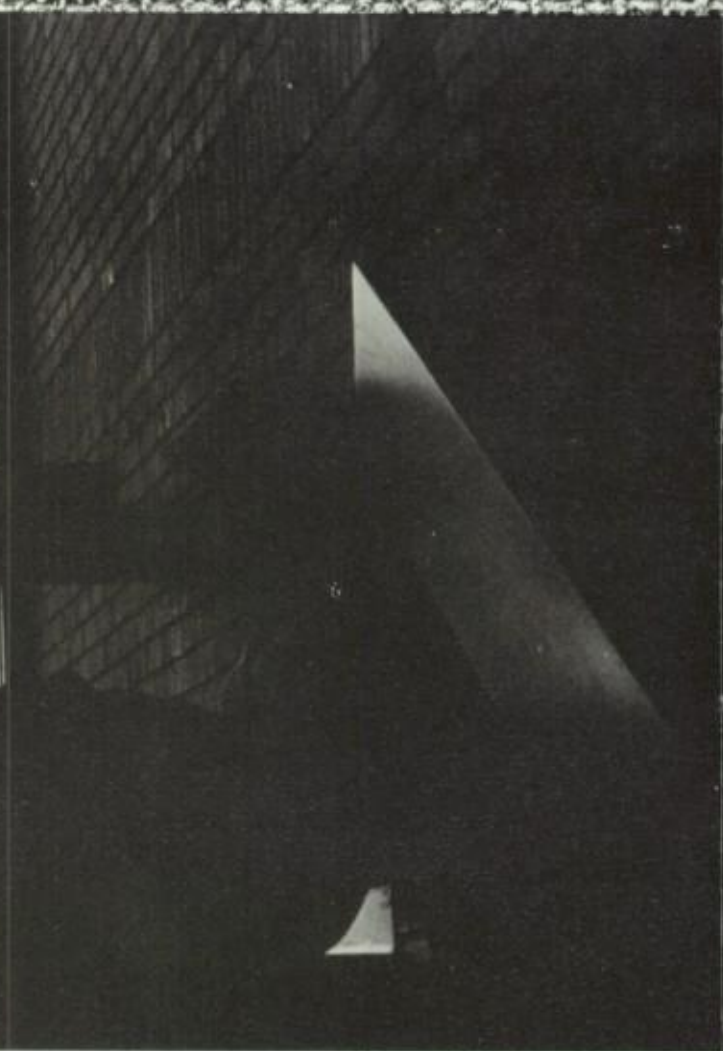

with April showers.

May . . . while school activities

come to a close, others begin

June . . . everyone relaxes as summer vacation draws near.

. . . graduation.
